International Harmonization of Competition Laws Chia-Jui Cheng, Chih-Kang Wang, Lawrence S. Liu, 2023-10-20 This collection of more than two dozen papers delivered to a symposium on International Harmonization of Competition Laws examines the policies and practices of competition laws in major industrial jurisdictions and emerging industrialized economies such as the host country of the Symposium the Republic of China on Taiwan World class scholars and leading enforcement officials contributed to this volume which examines the difficult issues of harmonizing competition laws In addition to enhancing the scholarship on a topic of current interest after the Uruguay Round of GATT talks the book also systematically examines topical issues in competition laws It thus not only offers policy analysis but also provides useful discussions of national and regional competition laws A useful tool on comparative competition laws this volume should be of interest to academics practitioners and enforcement officials around the world

Merger Control in Post-Communist Countries Jurgita Malinauskaite, 2010-11-01 This book provides a critical analysis of merger control regimes in the former socialist countries with small market economies looking at the unique challenges facing these economies Questions will be asked as to what extent these countries have had to follow dictation from the EU and whether this implementation of EU merger control rules has been justified from the point of view of these countries economic situations The book will analyse the merger control regimes in Estonia Latvia and Lithuania Slovenia and Slovakia However reference will be made to other small market economies of the EU including Cyprus Ireland Luxembourg and Malta in order to evaluate the particular difficulties the former socialist countries with small market economies have had in the implementation and further development of merger control rules

EC Competition Law Reform Barry E. Hawk, 2002-10-01 1 Hardcover Volume This volume includes selected chapters from the annual proceedings of the Fordham Corporate Law Institute The general subject is the reform of EC competition law enforcement This has been the subject of many Fordham conferences over the years Indeed EC Commission officials have stated that the modern reform proposals presently being considered had their roots at Fordham The present volume includes seminal articles and critiques of the EC competition law regime as well as very recent discussions of the Commission's proposal for reform Because much of the literature on EC competition law reform is scattered the present volume should be useful in including in one place a broad selection of articles and roundtable discussions The chapters cover not only institutional and jurisdictional issues like decentralization and sharing of powers between the Commission and the EC member states but also substantive issues like the scope of Article 81 and the rules of reason These and other issues are examined from both an analytical and historical perspective which greatly facilitates understanding of the future implications of the reform measures presently being debated In sum the chapters are not merely of historical interest problems and questions of ongoing importance are discussed
