MACDADE,1961 Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker,2015-12-07 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population Oral Law of Ancient Israel Robert D. Miller II, OFS,2022-10-12 This book presents a new window on the legal system of Ancient Israel Building on the understanding that Israel was a society where writing was the medium for some forms of discourse but not others where written texts were performed orally and rewritten from oral performances Robert D Miller II OFS examines law and jurisprudence in this oral and literate world Using Iceland as an ethnographic analogy Miller shows how law was practiced performed and transmitted the way written artifacts of the law fit into oral performance and transmission and the relationship of the detritus of law that survives in the Hebrew Bible both Torah and Proverbs to that earlier social world South African National Bibliography ,1991 "The" annals of murder Thomas M.
