Anne Bogart Viewpoints:

Anne Bogart Michael Bigelow Dixon, Joel A. Smith, 1994 The Viewpoints Book Anne Bogart, Tina Landau, 2004-08-01

The Viewpoints is a technique of improvisation that grew out of the postmodern dance world. It was first articulated by choreographer Mary Overlie who broke down the two dominant issues performers deal with: space and time into six categories. Since that time, directors Anne Bogart and Tina Landau have expanded her notions and adapted them for actors to function together spontaneously and intuitively and to generate bold theatrical work. The Viewpoints are a set of names given to certain principles of movement through time and space; they constitute a language for talking about what happens on stage. Coupling this with Composition, which is the practice of selecting and arranging the separate components of theatrical language into a cohesive work of art, provides theatre artists with an important new tool for creating and understanding their art form. Primarily intended for the many theatre artists who in the last several years have become intrigued with Viewpoints, yet have had no single source to refer to in their investigations, it can also be used by anyone with a general interest in collaboration and the creative process, whether in art, business, or daily life. Anne Bogart is Artistic Director of the SITI Company, which she founded with Japanese director Tadashi Suzuki in 1992. She is the recipient of two OBIE Awards and a Bessie Award and is an associate professor at Columbia University. Her recent works include Alice's Adventures, Bobrauschenbergamerica, Small Lives, Big Dreams, Marathon Dancing, and The Baltimore Waltz. Tina Landau, noted director and playwright, whose original work includes Space Time, Magazine 10, Best Dream, True, with composer Ricky Ian Gordon and Floyd Collins with composer Adam Guettel, which received the Lucille Lortel Award for Best Musical, an OBIE Award, and seven Drama Desk nominations. She has been an ensemble member of the Steppenwolf Theatre Company since 1997.

Performer Training Ian Watson, 2013-11-05. Performer Training is an examination of how actors are trained in different cultures. Beginning with studies of mainstream training in countries such as Poland, Australia, Germany, and the United States, subsequent studies survey some of Asia's traditional training methods and recent experiments in performer training. Eugenio Barba's training methods, Jerzy Grotowski's most recent investigations, The Japanese American NOHO companies' attempts at integrating Kyogen into the works of Samuel Beckett, Descriptions of the training methods developed by Tadashi Suzuki and Anne Bogart at their Saratoga International Theatre Institute. Recent efforts to re-examine the role and scope of training like Britain's International Workshop Festival and the European League of Institutes of Arts masterclasses. The reformulation of the use of emotions in performer training, known as Alba Emoting. Anne Bogart's Viewpoints in the Classroom Kathlyn M. Shakespeare's Sense of Character Michael W. Shurgot,2016-04-01 Making a unique intervention in an incipient but powerful resurgence of academic interest in character based approaches to Shakespeare this book brings scholars and theatre practitioners together to rethink why and how character continues to matter Contributors seek in particular to expand our notions of what Shakespearean character is and to extend the range of critical vocabularies in which character criticism can work The return to character thus involves incorporating as well as contesting postmodern ideas that have radically revised our conceptions of subjectivity and selfhood At the same time by engaging theatre practitioners this book promotes the kind of comprehensive dialogue that is necessary for the common endeavor of sustaining the vitality of Shakespeare's characters Building Embodiment Baron Kelly, Karen Kopryanski, 2023-06-09 Building Embodiment: Integrating Acting Voice and Movement to Illuminate Poetic Text offers a collection of strategic and practical approaches to understanding, analyzing, and embodying a range of heightened text styles including Greek tragedy, Shakespeare, and Restoration comedy of manners. These essays offer insights from celebrated teachers across the disciplines of acting voice and movement and are designed to help actors and instructors find deeper vocal and physical connections to poetic text. Although each dramatic genre offers a unique set of challenges, Building Embodiment highlights instances where techniques can be integrated, revealing how the synthesis of body, brain, and word results in a fuller sense of character experiencing for both the actor and the audience. This book bridges the gap between academic and professional application and invites the student and professional actor into a richer experience of character and story.

Embodied Learning in Educational Theatre Nancy Smithner, 2025-04-29 This book explores embodied teaching practices through applied and physical theatre, drawing extensively on the author's rich experience teaching in diverse urban environments including schools, colleges, and prison settings. It presents a groundbreaking conceptualization of embodied practice aimed at fostering personal and social growth through educational theatre. Each chapter delves into theories of social transformation supported by qualitative data from student reflections to provide both theoretical and practical insights. These insights illustrate how physicalized pedagogy can be effectively used to engage students with socially transformative ideas and identities. It also emphasizes the significant role of the facilitator in this process, highlighting how they can create an environment that fosters ethical and multicultural awareness in both formal educational settings such as classrooms and informal settings like community workshops. By promoting an ethos of inclusivity and ethical consideration, it argues that facilitators can help students navigate and engage with complex social issues through the medium of theatre. An accessible and compelling text, it aims to inspire educators to adopt innovative methods that promote deeper engagement and understanding among students.

Who Is In the Room? Brooke O'Harra, 2024-09-25 With this book, Brooke O'Harra takes up directing as an artistic practice in and of itself. Speaking beyond and against craft, O'Harra drives the art of directing forward. O'Harra investigates a series of important questions: How do we wrest our work from institutional imperatives of public building and culture building? How can an artist-driven discourse lead us toward the urgencies of artists and their publics in this moment? How do we make plays? How do we activate the relationships of making, whether between artists in the rehearsal room or between the production and the audience? Brooke addresses all aspects of the directorial process, reckoning with the script through dramaturgy, working within the rehearsal room, collaborating with other artists, as well as staging and production. This exploration will be of great interest to students and scholars in performance studies with a particular interest in directing.

Re-Situating Public Theatre in Contemporary France Ifigenia Gonis, 2023-05-10 This book examines the dynamics of the relational and spatial politics of contemporary French theatrical production with a focus on four theatres in the Greater Paris region It situates these dynamics within the intersection of the histories of the public theatre and theatre decentralization in France and the dialogues between live performances and the larger frameworks of artistic direction and programming as well as various imaginations of the public Understanding these phenomena as well as the politics that underscore them is key to understanding not only the present status of the public theatre in France but also how theatre as a publicly funded institution interacts with the notion of the plurality rather than the homogeneity of its publics
