that he should receive the nomination and equally impossible if it were offered that he should commit the folly of accepting it Four years later he was distressed at being unable to switch his journal s support of the Republican candidate Hayes to the Democratic candidate his old companion in political reform Samuel Jones Tilden As Bryant approached and entered his eighties his writing and public speaking continued without slackening Between 1872 and 1878 he published his collected Orations and Addresses edited a revision of his anthology of poetry and two volumes of landscape sketches Picturesque America co authored a four volume Popular History of the United States and undertook to co edit a three volume set of Shakespeare s plays while also producing long monographs on several seventeenth century English poets He dedicated statues of Shakespeare Walter Scott and Fitz Green Halleck in Central Park and spoke elsewhere on Robert Burns Benjamin Franklin Goethe and Shakespeare gave speeches on Mexico and National Honesty and presided over the founding of the State Charities Aid Association He was honored in Albany at receptions by each house of the legislature For his eightieth birthday his life s work was celebrated in silver on a Tiffany vase given him by admirers throughout the country Bryant s last public act was to unveil in Central Park his brainchild of nearly a half century earlier a bust of the Italian patriot Giuseppe Mazzini Here after exhaustion under the June sun he fell and suffered a massive concussion followed by a stroke which led to his death a fortnight later in his eighty fourth year A period of virtual national mourning preceded his funeral and his burial beside his wife at Roslyn At one of many memorial services a eulogist exclaimed The broad outline of his character had become universally familiar like a mountain or a sea Whoever saw Bryant saw America The Letters of William Cullen Bryant Volume VI 1872 1878 is available from the publisher on an open access basis Sex: Lessons From History Fern
