irreplaceable like a skin that never fades Caroline Montpetit in Le Devoir The Young Man is Annie Ernaux's account of her passionate love affair with a man some 30 years younger when she was in her fifties The relationship pulls her back to memories of her own youth and at the same time leaves her feeling ageless outside of time together with a sense that she is living her life backwards Amidst talk of having a child together she feels time running its course and menopause approaching The Young Man recalls Ernaux as the scandalous girl she once was but is composed with the mastery and the self assurance she has achieved across decades of writing It was first published in France in 2022 A Woman's Story Annie

Ernaux, 2003-08-05 WINNER OF THE 2022 NOBEL PRIZE IN LITERATURE A New York Times Notable Book A deeply affecting account of mothers and daughters youth and age and dreams and reality Kirkus Reviews Upon her mother's death from Alzheimer's Ernaux embarks on a daunting journey back through time as she seeks to capture the real woman the one who existed independently from me born on the outskirts of a small Normandy town and who died in the geriatric ward of a hospital in the suburbs of Paris She explores the bond between mother and daughter tenuous and unshakable at once the alienating worlds that separate them and the inescapable truth that we must lose the ones we love In this quietly powerful tribute Ernaux attempts to do her mother the greatest justice she can to portray her as the individual she was She writes I believe I am writing about my mother because it is my turn to bring her into the world Annie Ernaux Siobhán
