BOOK JACKET Literary Translation Clifford E. Landers, 2001-09-13 In this book both beginning and experienced translators will find pragmatic techniques for dealing with problems of literary translation whatever the original language Certain challenges and certain themes recur in translation whatever the language pair This guide proposes to help the translator navigate through them Written in a witty and easy to read style the book's hands on approach will make it accessible to translators of any background A significant portion of this Practical Guide is devoted to the question of how to go about finding an outlet for one's translations

Text Analysis in Translation Christiane Nord, 2006-01-01 Text Analysis in Translation has become a classic in Translation Studies Based on a functional approach to translation and indebted to pragmatic text linguistics it suggests a model for translation oriented source text analysis applicable to all text types and genres independent of the language and culture pairs involved Part 1 of the study presents the theoretical framework on which the model is based and surveys the various concepts of translation theory and text linguistics Part 2 describes the role and scope of source text analysis in the translation process and explains why the model is relevant to translation Part 3 presents a detailed study of the extratextual and intratextual factors and their interaction in the text using numerous examples from all areas of professional translation Part 4 discusses the applications of the model to translator training placing particular emphasis on the selection of material for translation classes grading the difficulty of translation tasks and translation quality assessment The book concludes with the practical analysis of a number of texts and their translations taking into account various text types and several languages German English Spanish French Italian Portuguese and Dutch Contemporary Translation Theories Edwin Gentzler, 2001-09-13 During the last thirty years the field of translation has exploded with multiple new theories Contemporary Translation Theories examines five of new approaches the translation workshop the science of translation translation studies polysystem theory and deconstruction all of which began in the mid 1960s and continue to be influential today A Practical Guide for Translators Geoffrey Samuelsson-Brown, 2004-01-01 Directed at those studying languages and those with some language capability and thinking of a career change this guide considers the practical aspects of the translation profession and how to set up a business

Translation-mediated Communication in a Digital World Minako O'Hagan, David Ashworth, 2002-05-03 The Internet is accelerating globalization by exposing organizations and individuals to global audiences This in turn is driving teletranslation and teleinterpretation new types of multilingual support which are functional in digital communications environments The book describes teletranslation and teleinterpretation by exploring a number of key emerging contexts for language professionals Translation and Nation Roger Ellis, Liz Oakley-Brown, 2001 This text focuses on the construction of Englishness through vernacular translations It suggests ways of looking at the questioning of the English subject through texts that engage with translation in differing ways A Chronology of Translation in China and the West Sin-wai Chan, 2009 This book is a study of the major events and publications in the world of translation in China and the West from its beginning in the legendary period to 2004 with special references to works published in Chinese and English It covers a total of 72 countries places and 1 000 works All the events and activities in the field have been grouped into 22 areas or categories for easy referencing This book is a valuable reference tool for all scholars working in the field of translation Words, Words, Words Gunilla M. Anderman, Margaret Rogers, 1996 This book presents an interesting new perspective on the study of the lexicon examining ways in which insights from translation and language learning can be viewed as complementary The contributors bring together a range of expertise including research on the mental lexicon second language acquisition research translation studies and practice terminology language teaching and lexicography The lexicon often considered to be the poor relation of grammar has recently received more attention from theoretical and applied linguists This book is a part of the trend to explore the rich potential of this field for the benefit of the translator or lexicographer as well as the language learner and the teacher The Pragmatics of Translation Leo Hickey, 1998 Pragmatics often defined as the study of language use and language users sets out to explain what people wish to achieve and how they go about achieving it in using language Such a study is clearly of direct relevance to an understanding of translation and translators The thirteen chapters in this volume show how translation skill art process and product is affected by pragmatic factors such as the acts performed by people when they use language how writers try to be polite relevant and cooperative the distinctions they make between what their readers may already know and what is likely to be new to them what is presupposed and what is openly affirmed time and space how they refer to things and make their discourse coherent how issues may be hedged or attempts made to produce in readers of the translation effects equivalent to those stimulated in readers of the original Particular attention is paid to legal political humorous poetic and other literary texts Translation Today Gunilla M. Anderman, Margaret Rogers, 2003 This text provides a snapshot of issues reflecting the changing nature of translation studies at the beginning of a new millennium Resulting from discussions between translation theorists from all over the world topics covered include the nature of translation English as a lingua franca public service translation and interpreting assessment and audio visual translation The first part of the work covers a discussion stimulated by Peter Newmark's paper and the second part allows invited colleagues to develop his topics More Paragraphs on Translation Peter Newmark, 1998 This text covers the field of translation applied to information human relations and literature It is illustrated with examples and quotations The content of the book covers the following subject areas translation topics such as examining assessing capitalization emphasis idiolect grecolatinisms across languages the small print eponyms and howlers translation theory differences between good and bad translation good and bad writing literary and non literary texts and translations cultural and universal factors translation as a matter of public interest in the European Union and national parliaments as well as in museums and art galleries and critical discussion of recently published books and conference proceedings Qur'an Translation Hussein Abdul-Raof, 2013-09-05 The Qur'an is read by millions of Muslims on a daily basis yet there is no book available to the reader Arab or non Arab which provides a linguistic and rhetorical insight into Qur'anic discourse This book explains Qur'an translational problems and provides a thorough account of the unique syntactic semantic phonetic prosodic pragmatic and rhetorical features of the Qur'an Linguistic Auditing Nigel Reeves, Colin Wright, 1996-01-01 Linguistic Auditing tackles an important but overlooked dimension in the drive for quality capability in foreign language communication which puts the needs and sensibilities of the customer first and eliminates loss of time misunderstandings and bad feelings through helping to maximise staff's current language capacity and build new capability through purpose based training and conformance at the communication level to planning objectives Teaching and Researching Translation Basil A. Hatim, 2014-04-23 Teaching Researching Translation provides an authoritative and critical account of the main ideas and concepts competing issues and solved and unsolved questions involved in Translation Studies This book provides an up to date accessible account of the field focusing on the main challenges encountered by translation practitioners and researchers Basil Hatim also provides readers and users with the tools they need to carry out their own practice related research in this burgeoning new field This second edition has been fully revised and updated through out to include The most up to date research in a number of key areas A new introduction as well as a new chapter on the translation of style which sets out a new agenda for research in this field Updated examples and new concepts Expanded references bibliography and further reading sections as well as new links and resources Armed with this expert guidance students of translation researchers and practitioners or anyone with a general interest in this fast developing field can explore for themselves a range of exemplary practical applications of research into key issues and questions Basil Hatim is Professor of Translation Linguistics at the American University of Sharjah UAE and theorist and practitioner in English Arabic translation He has worked and lectured widely at universities throughout the world and has published extensively on Applied Linguistics Text Linguistics Translation Interpreting and TESOL

Culture Bumps Ritva Leppihalme,1997 This work focuses on translators and readers as participants in the communicative process where the use of allusions is one type of problem to be solved Reader response tests and interviews with professional translators highlight the difficulty in conveying the function and meaning of allusive passages to readers in another culture The many examples discussed also provide materials for translation teachers wanting to address the translation of allusions in their courses

Translating and Comparing Languages: Corpus-based Insights Sylviane Granger,Marie-Aude Lefer,2020-09-18 The present volume contains selected proceedings from the fifth edition of the Using Corpora in Contrastive and Translation Studies UCCTS international conference held at the University of Louvain in September 2018 It brings together thirteen chapters that all make use of electronic comparable and or parallel corpora to inform contrastive linguistics translation theory translation pedagogy translation quality assessment and multilingual terminology The volume is structured in five thematic sections devoted to learner focused descriptive translation studies corpus use in translator training studies of translated and edited language contrastive linguistics and terminology Together the contributions in the volume reflect recent developments in corpus based cross linguistic studies such as the compilation and analysis of learner translation corpora to identify the typical features of learner translated language and inform translator training the comparative analysis of translation and other forms of mediated communication such as editing the compilation of new multilingual corpora and the analysis of under researched linguistic phenomena such as punctuation The volume also testifies to the growing cross fertilization between contrastive linguistics and translation studies both in terms of methodology e g the combined use of different types of corpora and the exploration of corpus driven methods and theory e g the role played by source language influence and cross linguistic contrasts in translation
