Carl Hausman, Philip G. Benoit, Fritz Messere, 2019-04-08 Announcing for Broadcasting and the Internet is the standard text for traditional broadcasters and emerging pioneers. While many still pursue careers in traditional fields such as television and radio news announcing, broadcast performance has expanded to Internet radio, podcasting, home voice over production, and performance on YouTube and other Internet video venues. This text is an update of the classic text Announcing: The practical guide to mastering the techniques and mechanics of broadcast announcing, which remains updated to give readers the ability to produce their own portfolio of performance products and get started in the career they want. It covers audio and video editing programs, new streaming media, and how to develop a powerful, consistent, and noteworthy speaking voice. Broadcast Announcing Worktext Alan R. Stephenson, Reed Smith, Mary E. Beadle, 2020-04-29 Broadcast Announcing Worktext now in its fifth edition remains one of the best resources for those looking to gain the skills, techniques, and procedures necessary to enter the competitive field of broadcast performance. Written accessibly with easy-to-digest modules and practice projects, this book encourages active participation from readers to help develop their talent on air. In addition to the principles of good performance, the book addresses the importance of the audience and how to communicate effectively to diverse groups. The book combines traditional teaching with practical experience and includes sample scripts and self-study exercises to allow for a practical, hands-on application of key concepts. The fifth edition expanded throughout features updates about performance on the Internet and social media, as well as content about podcasting and audio performance. A new chapter on international media offers readers a look at media performance and career possibilities around the world. This book is an invaluable resource for any student of journalism, communication, or public relations looking to enhance their media performance skills. A detailed accompanying website features audio clips, sample test questions, and a Professionals Comment Bank setting out experience and advice from working pros. Television and Radio Announcing Stuart Hyde, 2017-07-05 The digital revolution has significantly changed broadcast technology. The 12th edition of Television and Radio Announcing reflects new trends in the field, such as the reconfiguration of electronic media production practices and distribution models. The Internet and social media have opened up new access to production and new methods of distribution, such as YouTube, Facebook, Twitter, and podcasts.
