

5 Ways to Tell You're Annoying

Asking for annoying things

Some people tend to enlist other people to help them with tasks that they can accomplish themselves, which is considered lazy, thus annoying.

Being an interrupter

Are you known for interrupting people in the middle of their sentence? The more you talk over people, the more annoying you will come off to them.

Having a bad scent

Not smelling like a clean human being tends to keep people away from you because your odor has overpowered their senses and they just can't stand it.

Being too loud

Have you ever thought about how loud you could possibly be? A 2017 study proved that the levels of loudness from a person or the environment can be considered annoying because it is mentally and physically distracting.

Using negative words/tone

Even when speaking in a positive tone, many people tend to spill negative words while speaking, which is called Emotion Word Processing and can feel draining.
