Contemplation In A World Of Action:

Contemplation in a World of Action Thomas Merton, 1998-02-15 The spiritual and psychological insights of these essays were nurtured in a monastic milieu but their issues are universally human Thomas Merton lays a foundation for personal growth and transformation through fidelity to our own truth and inner being His main focus is our desire and need to attain a fully human and personal identity This classic is a newly restored and corrected edition and the inaugural volume of Gethsemani Studies in Psychological and Religious Anthropology a series of books that explores through the twin perspectives of psychology and religion the dynamics and depths of being fully human When I speak of the contemplative life I do not mean the institutional cloistered life I am talking about a special dimension of inner discipline and experience a certain integrity and fullness of personal development Discovering the contemplative life is a new self discovery One might say it is the flowering of a deeper identity on an entirely different plane Thomas Merton from the book Contemplation in a World of Action Thomas Merton, 1965 Contemplation in a World of Action Thomas Merton, Jean Leclercq, 1971

Contemplation in a World of Action Thomas Merton, Jean Leclercq, 1971 Contemplation in a World of Action Victor A. Kramer, 1980 In Search of the Healing Spirit Nass Cannon Jr., 2023-06-29 The late Dr Nass Cannon Jr MD was a physician for the indigent poor for over forty years and an internationally renowned scholar of the theologian and monk Thomas Merton In Search of the Healing Spirit follows a narrative arc across several essays of Dr Cannon's analysis and reflections on life and Thomas Merton's theological contributions First articulated by Dr Cannon at the outset of his journey to serve the poor the guiding principle of the book is an exploration of what it means to be broken and called to heal each other ourselves and the world As Dr Cannon writes I am a physician who views his root identity as one called to heal Yet I experience myself as broken as one admonished by the phrase Physician heal thyself Perhaps you too experience yourself as a broken healer Let us together explore some notions regarding the healer as broken examine the nature of healing and consider the relationship of the healer to one healed From this position as a broken healer which implicitly embodies Merton's contemplative spirituality Dr Cannon's meditations over the course of his life of service increasingly weave in Merton's contributions in search of the true self on such pressing and universal topics as grief and loss the eternal nature and healing power of love and to do what we can for each other with the time we are given Dr Cannon's writings engage a twenty first century audience with insights drawn from fifty years of study that can aid lay persons clergy and academics to better understand what it means to be a broken person and through that brokenness to heal themselves and the world Mystics William Harmless, 2008 In Mystics William Harmless S J introduces readers to the scholarly study of mysticism He explores both mystics extraordinary lives and their no less extraordinary writings using a unique case study method centered on detailed examinations of six major Christian mystics Thomas Merton Bernard of Clairvaux Hildegard of Bingen Bonaventure Meister Eckhart and Evagrius Ponticus Rather than presenting mysticism as a subtle web of psychological or theological abstractions Harless s case study approach brings things down to earth restoring mystics to their historical context The Life of the Vows Thomas Merton,2012 As novice master of the Cistercian Abbey of Our Lady of Gethsemani in Kentucky Thomas Merton presented weekly conferences to familiarize his charges with the meaning and purpose of the vows they aspired to undertake In this setting he offered a thorough exposition of the theological canonical and above all spiritual dimensions of the vows Merton set the vows firmly in the context of the anthropological moral soteriological and ecclesial dimensions of human Christian and monastic life He addressed such classical themes of Christian morality as the nature of the human person and his acts the importance of justice in relation to the Passion of Christ to friendship and to love and self surrender as the key to grace prayer and the vowed life Merton s words on these topics clearly spring from a committed heart and often flow with the soaring intensity of style that we have come to expect in his more enthusiastic prose The texts of these conferences represent the longest and most systematically organized of any of numerous series of conferences that Merton presented during the decade of his mastership They may be the most directly pastoral work Merton ever wrote
