Mesopotamia & Arabia Lee Fratantuono,2021-01-30 This volume explores the Roman invasions and military operations in two distinct yet related areas Mesopotamia and Arabia In these far flung regions of the ancient known world Rome achieved the greatest point of expansion in the history of her Empire Under the reign of the Emperor Trajan the Roman Empire reached the point of maximum expansion made famous by maps of the world circa AD 120 Under the Severans significant efforts were expended on a Roman dream of linking the two regions into one mighty provincial bulwark against Eastern enemies Individual chapters detail the history of the conquest of these easternmost territories of the Empire analyzing the opposing armies involved Roman Parthian Sassanian Arab and the reasons for success and failure The story of how Rome won and lost her Far East offers a paradigm for the rise and fall of the greatest military empire of the ancient world Selected Readings in American Military History Infantry School (U.S.),1953 Military History of Late Rome 457-518 Ilkka Syväanne,2021-01-26 A history and military analysis of the world changing events following the fall of the Western Roman Empire The Military History of Late Rome 457 518 provides a fresh new look into the events that led to the collapse of West Rome while East Rome not only survived but went on to prosper despite a series of major defeats that included most notably the catastrophic campaign against the Vandals in 468 The author explains what mistakes the West Romans made and what the East Romans did right to survive He analyzes the role of the barbarian generals and military forces in this and also offers an analysis of the tactical developments during this pivotal period as a result of which the cavalry so famous from the accounts of Procopius became the dominant arm in the East The book also offers a detailed study of a number of battles that have never before been subjected to such scrutiny and puts these firmly into the context of their times At the very end of this period in 518 East Rome was poised to start its reconquest under Anastasius successors Justin I and Justinian I This book explains why this was possible Quarterly Review of Military Literature ,1962 Review of Current Military Literature ,1949 Bleed in Practice, Shine in Battle - The Brutal Truth About Preparation David Goggins, George Robin,2025-10-01 Everyone wants to win when the lights are on Few are willing to suffer when no one is watching Victory isn t earned in the spotlight it s forged in the shadows in the hours of pain discipline and repetition that no one celebrates Bleed in Practice Shine in Battle is a raw manifesto on the unforgiving law of preparation It strips away the myths of talent and luck to expose a simple truth you will only rise in battle to the level of sacrifice you ve made in training Inside you ll discover Why failure under pressure is always rooted in lack of preparation The hidden connection between pain discipline and long term dominance How elite performers from athletes to entrepreneurs train their minds and bodies for war before it begins Practical methods to push past comfort build resilience and prepare so thoroughly that success becomes inevitable Why bleeding in practice is the only way to shine when everything is on the line This isn t a book about motivation

It s a blueprint for turning struggle into strength training into triumph and preparation into unstoppable confidence If you want to rise above mediocrity stop wishing for easier battles and start preparing so hard that nothing can break you
