Of Architecture:

Intervals in the Philosophy of Architecture Alberto Pérez Gómez, Stephen Parcell, 1996 In this second volume in the Chora series contributing authors explore critical questions for the theory and practice of architecture They take an interdisciplinary approach to architecture and other cultural concerns challenging readers to consider alternatives to conventional aesthetic and technological reductions The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic, Farzaneh Haghighi, 2024-11-22 Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence security race and ideology spectacle and data The first volume of this handbook extensively explored these oppressive roles This second volume illustrates that escaping the corporatized and bureaucratized orders of power techno managerial and consumer oriented capitalist economic models is more urgent and necessary than ever before Herein lies the political role of architecture and urban space including the ways through which they can be transformed and alternative political realities constituted The volume explores the methods and spatial practices required to activate the political dimension and the possibility for alternative practices to operate in the existing oppressive systems while not being swallowed by these structures Fostering new political consciousness is explored in terms of the following themes Events and Dissidence Biopolitics Ethics and Desire Climate and Ecology Urban Commons and Social Participation Marginalities and Postcolonialism Volume II embraces engagement across disciplines and offers a wide range of projects and critical analyses across the so called Global North and South This multidisciplinary collection of 36 chapters provides the reader with an extensive resource of case studies and ways of thinking for architecture and urban space to become more emancipatory Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4 0 license The Political Unconscious of Architecture Nadir Lahiji, 2016-02-24 Thirty years have passed since eminent cultural and literary critic Fredric Jameson wrote his classic work The Political Unconscious Narrative as a Socially Symbolic Act in which he insisted that there is nothing that is not social and historical indeed that everything is in the last analysis political Bringing together a team of leading scholars including Slavoj Žižek Joan Ockman Jane Rendell and Kojin Karatani this book critically examines the important contribution made by Jameson to the radical critique of architecture over this period highlighting its continued importance to contemporary architecture discourse Jameson's notion of the political unconscious represents one of the most powerful notions in the link between aesthetics and politics in contemporary discourse Taking this along with other key concepts from Jameson as the basis for its chapters this anthology asks questions such as Is architecture a place to stage class struggle How can architecture act against the conditions that affirmatively produce it What does the critical and the negative mean in the discourse of architecture and How do we prevent architecture from participating in the reproduction of the cultural logic of late capitalism This book breaks new ground in architectural criticism and offers insights into the interrelationships between politics culture space and architecture and in doing so it acts as a counter balast to the current trend in architectural research where a general aestheticization dominates the discourse

Canon of the Five Orders of Architecture Giacomo Barozzi da Vignola,John Leeke,David Watkin,2011-01-01 This Dover edition first published in 2010 is an unabridged republication of The Regular Architect or the General Rule of the Five Orders of Architecture printed for William Sherwin London in 1669 A dictionary of architecture; historical, descriptive, topographical, decorative, theoretical and mechanical, alphabetically arranged, familiarly explained and adapted to the comprehension of workmen Robert Meikleham,1854 A history of architecture in all countries, from the earliest times to... James Fergusson,1873 The Rudiments of Architecture and Building John Bullock,1865 The Genius of Architecture, Or, The Analogy of that Art with Our Sensations Nicolas Le Camus de Mézières,1992 This series offers a range of heretofore unavailable writings in English translation on the subjects of art architecture and aesthetics Camus s description of the French hotel argues that architecture should please the senses and the mind Actions of Architecture Jonathan Hill,2003 The reader viewer user s guide The role of the user The passive user From the reactive user to the creative user The creative user Montage after shock The montage of fragments The montage of gaps The institute of illegal architects Weather architecture Berlin1929 1930 Barcelona 1986 Barcelona 1999 White on white Electromagnetic weather The subject is matter Turning a wall in to a window The History and Rudiments of Architecture John Bullock,1853 Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Dr Gevork Hartoonian,2015-10-28 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect's role in the design and production processes of architecture Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture

Architectural Projects of Marco Frascari Sam Ridgway, 2016-03-09 Marco Frascari believed that architects should design thoughtful buildings capable of inspiring their inhabitants to have pleasurable and happy lives A visionary Italian architect academic and theorist Frascari is best known for his extraordinary texts which explore the intellectual theoretical and practical substance of the architectural discipline As a student in Venice during the late 1960s Frascari was taught and mentored by Carlo Scarpa Later he moved to North America with his family where he became a fulltime academic Throughout his academic career he continued to work on numerous architectural projects including exhibitions competition entries and designs for approximately 35 buildings a small number of which were built As a means of re constructing the theatre of imaginative theory within which these buildings were created Sam Ridgway draws on a wide selection of Frascari's texts including his richly poetic book Monsters of Architecture to explore the themes of representation demonstration and anthropomorphism Three of Frascari's delightful buildings are then brought to light and interpreted revealing a sophisticated and interwoven relationship between texts and buildings
