Boyd John Potter (abp. of Canterbury.), 1837 Archæologia Græca, or The antiquities of Greece. To which is added, an appendix, containing a concise history of the Grecian states [&c.] by G. Dunbar John Potter (abp. of Canterbury.), 1818 Archæologia Græca, Or The Antiquities of Greece John Potter, 1808

Archæologia Græca John Potter, 1813 Archæologia græca, or, The antiquities of Greece ... A new edition; with a life of the author, by Robert Anderson, M.D., and an appendix ... by George Dunbar, etc John POTTER (successively Bishop of Oxford and Archbishop of Canterbury.), 1824 Archæologia Græca ... New edition; with a life of the author, by R. Anderson, and an appendix ... by G. Dunbar John POTTER (successively Bishop of Oxford and Archbishop of Canterbury.), 1837 Archæologia Græca ... A New Edition John POTTER (successively Bishop of Oxford and Archbishop of Canterbury.), 1813 Archæologiae Græcae, Or, The Antiquities of Greece. To which is Prefixed the Life of the Author John Potter, 1808 Dublin journal of medical science , 1896 Rituals of Death and Dying in Modern and Ancient Greece Evy Johanne Håland, 2014-10-02 Winner of the AFS Elli K ng s Maranda Prize 2016 Multidisciplinary or post disciplinary research is what is needed when dealing with such complex subjects as ritual behaviour This research therefore combines ethnography with historical sources to examine the relationship between modern Greek death rituals and ancient written and visual sources on the subject of death and gender The central theme of this work is women s role in connection with the cult of the dead in ancient and modern Greece The research is based on studies in ancient history combined with the author s fieldwork and anthropological analysis of today s Mediterranean societies Since death rituals have a focal and lasting importance and reflect the gender relations within a society the institutions surrounding death may function as a critical vantage point from which to view society The comparison is based on certain religious festivals that are dedicated to deceased persons and on other death rituals Using laments burials and the ensuing memorial rituals the relationship between the cult dedicated to deceased mediators in both ancient and modern society is analysed The research shows how the official ideological rituals are influenced by the domestic rituals people perform for their own dead and vice versa that the modern domestic rituals simultaneously reflect the public performances As this cult has many parallels with the ancient official cult the following questions are central Can an analysis of modern public and domestic rituals in combination with ancient sources tell the reader more about the ancient death cult as a whole What does such an analysis suggest about the relationship between the domestic death cult and the official Since the practical performance of the domestic rituals was and still remains in the hands of women it is crucial to discover the extent of their influence to elucidate the real power relations between women and men This research represents a new contribution to earlier presentations of the Greek reality but mainly from the female perspective which is highly significant since men produced most of the ancient sources This means that the principal objective for this endeavour is to question the ways in which history has been written through the ages to supplement the male with a female perspective perhaps complementing an Olympian Zeus with a Chthonic Mother Earth The research brings both ancient and modern worlds into mutual illumination its relevance therefore transcends the Greek context both in time and space
