The

Trial of the Gospel Alexandru Neagoe, 2002-05-16 For many years Luke Acts has been studied as a work of history and theology The Trial of the Gospel sets out to examine Luke's writings as an apologetic work by focusing on those parts of Luke's story where the apologetic overtones seem most prominent the trial narratives By analysing the trials of all major Lukan characters Jesus Peter Stephen and Paul Alexandru Neagoe argues that the narratives are best understood when viewed as part of Luke's apologia pro evangelio a purpose which is in keeping with the author's declared aim to give his readers assurance about the matters in which they had been instructed Luke 1:4 Neagoe concludes that the specific role of the trial narratives is to provide the framework within which important tenets of the Christian faith are themselves put on trial before the reader with the intended result of the gospel's confirmation

Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics Matt W. Lee,2022-03-03 In the post Christian world we find sincere efforts in traditional Christian apologetics repeatedly running into invisible walls These blocks happen when cultural issues are neglected With mere rational arguments presented as a defense of Christianity logical answers alone are not attracting the nonbelievers nor resolving their skepticism People today have different obstacles in coming to the Christian faith particularly their own cultural presuppositions How do we present defend and commend Christianity to people whose culture gives them a frame of mind the one that cares very little about how rational the arguments are Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics explores the world of the New Testament and the ministry of the apostle Paul to excavate a fresh model for apologetics with cultural engagement to present an answer Matt W Lee analyzes the dynamics involved in Paul s cultural connection with his audience and how it relates to their receptivity uncovering a scheme of apologetics engagement patterned in his apologetics speeches From the background of Paul s world to the forefront of contemporary apologetics preaching Cultural Contextualization of Apologetics offers a vision of apologetics communication that is both biblical and practical Paul's Territoriality and Mission Strategy Ksenija Magda,2009 A revision of the author s thesis Ph D London School of Theology 2008
