Queer Theory in Film & Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, John C. Hawley, Patricia Thornton Emenyonu, Adéléké Adéèkó, Obi Nwakanma, 2018 ALT 36 turns a queer eye on Africa offering provocative re readings of texts to position formerly erased sexualities and contemporary sexual expression among Africans on the continent and abroad Orature in African Literature Today Eldred D. Jones, Eustace Palmer, Marjorie Jones, 1992 African novelists playwrights and poets even when they are writing in one of the colonial languages draw on their rich ethnic bases These resources provide ideas themes and linguistic delight The myriad languages of the continent although used today mainly for workday communication have through the centuries been vehicles for the oral artistic verbal compositions and transmission now formalized as orature Publisher's description Speculative & Science Fiction Ernest N. Emenyonu, Chimalum Nwankwo, Louisa Uchum

Egbunike, 2021 Over the past two decades there has been a resurgence in the writing of African and African diaspora speculative and science fiction writing Discussions around the rise of science fiction and fantasy have led to a push back by writers and scholars who have suggested that this is not a new phenomenon in African literature This collection focuses on the need to recalibrate ways of reading and categorising this genre of African writing through critical examinations both of classics such as Kofi Awoonor's Woman of the Aeroplanes 1988 and Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o's oeuvre as well as more recent fiction from writers including Nnedi Okorafor Namwali Serpell and Masande Ntshanga Back cover Environmental

Transformations Ernest N. Emenyonu, 2020 Investigates what literary strategies African writers adopt to convey the impact of climate transformation and environmental change This special issue examines the ways fiction and poetry engage with environmental consciousness and how African literary criticism addresses the implications of global environmental transformations Does environmentalist literature offer new possibilities for critical thinking about the future What constitutes environmentalist fiction and poetry What kind of texts themes and topics does climate writing include Does any text in which the environment features become available to environmentalist criticism In their engagement with the diverse genres themes and frameworks through which contemporary African writers address topics including urbanisation cross species communication nature and climate change contributors to this special issue help to define African environmental writing They look at the literary strategies adopted by creative writers to convey the impact of environmental transformation in narratives that are historically informed by a century of colonialism nationalist political activism urbanisation and postcolonial migration How does environmental literature intervene in these histories Can creative writers with their powerfully post human and cross species imaginations carry out the ethical work demanded by contemporary climate science From Tanure Ojaide's and Helon Habila's attention to environmental decimation in the Niger Delta through to Nnedi Okorafor's and Kofi Anyidoho's imaginative cross species encounters the special issue asks how literature mediates the specificities of climate change in an era of global capitalism and technological transformation and what the limits of creative

Short Story Ernest Emenyonu, 2013 The success of the Caine Prize for African Writing and the growth of online publishing have played key roles in putting the short story in its rightful place within the study and criticism of African literature African writers have much more than the critics recognized the beauty and potency of the short story Always the least studied in African literature classrooms and the most critically overlooked genre in African literature today the African short story is now given the attention it deserves Contributors here take a close look at the African short story to re define its own peculiar pedigree chart its trajectory critique its present state and examine its creative possibilities They examine how the short story and the novel complement each other or exist in contradistinction within the context of culture and politics history and public memory legends myths and folklore Ernest Emenyonu is Professor of Africana Studies at the University of Michigan Flint USA the editorial board is composed of scholars from US UK and African universities Nigeria HEBN African Literature Today, 2004 Italian Theory and New Political Extremisms Alfonso Galindo Hervás, 2025-11-04 So far this century the most developed democratic societies have witnessed the emergence of various extremist political movements Some have nationalist connotations others religious there are right wing and left wing pacifist and violent with environmental or social motivations etc But they all share reactionary dogmatic and illiberal traits Such movements testify to some of the limitations of our societies and the condition of life in them Therefore understanding the challenges they pose to our institutions is vital not only to confront them but also to identify their shortcomings and work to improve them Using Italian Theory as a conceptual lens this book provides genealogies of current extremist political movements their theoretical assumptions and the challenges they imply Succinct and accessible chapters discuss different manifestations of political extremism its violence its relation to populism its religious dimension its conception of political action some of its intellectual influences and its anti liberal and totalitarian character to name a few Italian Theory and New Political Extremisms is highly relevant to researchers and students interested in learning a series of concepts categories metaphors and arguments that are unique and extraordinarily useful for approaching the phenomenon of political extremism in a comprehensive manner
