The Look Alike By Joseph A. Levy

Michael Biton is a young ambitious law student. He has completed his first year at Brooklyn Law School and everything is going perfectly for him as he is doing an internship with the City of New York. Suddenly out of nowhere he gets identified, arrested, and subsequently indicted for a rape that he insists he did not commit. His future, which had been unlimited, now becomes uncertain as he must pay a lot of money to a high-profile criminal defense lawyer while at the same time deal with an arrogant overzealous prosecutor who is determined to convict him at any cost. As he awaits trial, he starts to find out that there are many weird aspects to the case and that it is raising a lot of questions for which there are no answers. He also finds out that there is a person who looks exactly like him who attends the same law school and who worked in the same building as he. The Look Alike is more than just a legal thriller. It is an intense personal drama about Michael Biton getting a legal education, an education far different from the casebook law that he has been getting in law school. It is a book
