*The Toad's Bone moves against the stream
As surely as waking moves against the dream;
So solid and so fluid go the nights and days
And the flesh of men and women,
And the mind and heart that strays
From the path called 'straight and narrow'-
Onto the crooked road, that path's hidden marrow.
The binding Weird calls them to the game.*

*No teacher has been so wise, nor cunning
As the yellow moon arising and the river running;
No teacher as swift as the darting hare
Or as wise as the toad in darkness,
Or as strong as the nut-brown mare.
There is no temple as sacred as the vast dark Land;
No craft as ancient as the wordsmith's art,
Whose spells of old so few now understand.*
