Ideologies of Identity in Adolescent Fiction Robyn McCallum, 2012-10-02 Ideologies of Identity in Adolescent Fiction examines the representation of selfhood in adolescent and children s fiction using a Bakhtinian approach to subjectivity language and narrative The ideological frames within which identities are formed are inextricably bound up with ideas about subjectivity ideas which pervade and underpin adolescent fictions Although the humanist subject has been systematically interrogated by recent philosophy and criticism the question which lies at the heart of fiction for young people is not whether a coherent self exists but what kind of self it is and what are the conditions of its coming into being Ideologies of Identity in Adolescent Fiction has a double focus first the images of selfhood that the fictions offer their readers especially the interactions between selfhood social and cultural forces ideologies and other selves and second the strategies used to structure narrative and to represent subjectivity and intersubjectivity

Historical Fiction for Children Fiona M. Collins, Judith Graham, 2013-10-18 Historical fiction has a great deal to offer as its readers and devotees have always known The time is ripe however for the historical novel and historical picture book to be promoted more emphatically so that many more are made aware of the delight and learning to be found in the genre The editors of this book invited authors academic writers and teachers to reflect on the nature scope range and richness of historical fiction for children What is collected here provides an overview of the field a consideration of significant writers of historical fiction from the nineteenth century onwards a sense of the various historical eras commonly explored Stone Age to World War 2 a discussion of commonly raised issues themes and topics such as child labor slavery and migration and a forum for writers to reveal their insights into the writing of historical fiction Julian Atterton Berlie Doherty Michael Foreman and Philip Pullman have made contributions It provides evidence of children and students engaging creatively with historical fiction Best Books for Young Adults Holly Koelling,2007-08-13 Rev ed of Best books for young adults Betty Carter with Sally Estes and Linda Waddle 2nd ed c2000 The Use of Crushed Bones as Manure Cuthbert William Johnson,1836 Under This Forgetful Sky Lauren Yero,2024-07-09 When rebels infect his father with a fatal virus sixteen year old Rumi ventures beyond his city s protected walls and meets Paz who offers to guide him on his search for a cure but may have an agenda of her own From the Yenisei to the Yukon Ted Goebel,Ian Buvit,2011-04-01 Who were the first people who came to the land bridge joining northeastern Asia to Alaska and the northwest of North America Where did they come from How did they organize technology especially in the context of settlement behavior During the Pleistocene era the people now known as Beringians dispersed across the varied landscapes of late glacial northeast Asia and northwest North America The twenty chapters gathered in this volume explore in addition to the questions posed above how Beringians adapted in response to climate and environmental changes They share a focus on the significance of the modern human inhabitants of the region By examining and analyzing lithic artifacts geoarchaeological evidence zooarchaeological data and archaeological features these studies offer important interpretations of the variability to be found in the early material culture the first Beringians The scholars contributing to this work consider the region from Lake Baikal in the west to southern British Columbia in the east Through a technological organization approach this volume permits investigation of the evolutionary process of adaptation as well as the historical processes of migration and cultural transmission The result is a closer understanding of how humans adapted to the diverse and unique conditions of the late Pleistocene Angel of the Avenues , Official Documents, Comprising the Department and Other Reports Made to the Governor, Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania ,1895 Marie B.
