Called Rats Poems:

Classes on Modern Poets and the Art of Poetry James Dickey, 2004 Housman Gerard Manley Hopkins Robert Frost Walter de la Mare and Robert Bridges      Facades John Pearson, 2011-12-01 First published in 1978 Facades details the lives of three of the twentieth century's most intriguing literary figures Edith Osbert and Sacheverell Sitwell Aristocrats emanating from a privileged but loveless youth they moulded the scene of the English avant garde throughout the 1920s and in Cyril Connolly's words had they not been there a whole area of life would have been missing Picking up prot g's and starting feuds with equal alacrity they were never far from controversy and were often slighted for being better known for the facades which they put up around their work rather than their artistic out put in itself Whether these facades were set up to hide their art or their deeply conflicted personal lives is one of the most compelling problems brought up by Pearson With as much attention paid to both the private and public aspects of their lives this biography captures the manifest intrigue of one of England's strangest and most flamboyant families and the whole host of fascinating characters from T S Eliot to Gertrude Stein with whom their paths intersect      The Poetry of the Self-taught Julie D. Prandi, 2008 The Poetry of the Self Taught demonstrates the characteristic strengths of self taught poetry and analyzes the factors that have caused most selftaught poets to disappear from anthologies and from literary history Raising the question of whether or not their work should be read today and taken seriously instead of being relegated to separate and unequal categories like women's or peasant poetry the book highlights interesting contrasts between the poetry of eighteenth century autodidacts such as Robert Burns Mary Leapor C D F Schubart and Anna Louise Karsch and the work of their contemporaries mainstream poets like Alexander Pope James Thomson C F Gellert and Barthold Heinrich Brockes Self taught poetry is often treated as an index to the lives and times of the poets but this book explores it with a different purpose to understand and illustrate the commonalities in autodidactic poetics imagery rhetorical strategies and themes Concurrent with a recent upturn of interest in laboring or self taught poets both in England and in Germany The Poetry of the Self Taught will be useful for courses focusing on such poets or those dealing with eighteenth century literature      The Defense of Poesy, Otherwise Known as An Apology for Poetry Philip Sidney, 1890      Parliament and Political Pamphleteering in Fourteenth-century England Clementine Oliver, 2010 Sixty years before the advent of the printing press the first political pamphlets about parliament were circulated in the city of London These handwritten pamphlets reported on victories against the crown and point to the existence of a market of readers hungry for news of parliament      The Greatest Christmas Tales & Poems in One Volume (Illustrated) Louisa May Alcott, O. World, Self, Poem Leonard M. Trawick, Cleveland State University. Poetry Center, 1990 World Self Poem collects the best of the essays submitted by poets and scholars from around the U S and Canada and beyond for presentation at the Jubilation of Poets festival celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Cleveland State University Poetry Center in October 1986 In this collection eighteen critics consider the works of a number of important postmodern poets and using various approaches confront some of the central problems posed by the poetry of the past 25 years John Ashbery Wendell Berry Edward Dorn Robert Duncan Geoffrey Hill Ted Hughes Lousie Gluck Adrienna Rich Denise Levertov Gary Snyder Gerald Stern and William Stafford are among the poets who receive detailed attention in these essays The questions addressed include political involvement and noninvolvement the theme of nuclear annihilation the poet s use and misuse of history poetry workshops in Central America the I in contemporary poetry the pastoral vein in contemporary poetry the nature and implications of concrete and found poetry analogies of poetry and music

Men of Our Time Fred Moramarco, Al Zolynas, 1992-10-01 In this groundbreaking volume Fred Moramarco and Al Zolynas bring together a comprehensive and widely representative selection of poetry reflecting both the diversity and commodity of male experience in the United States today Since the beginning of the contemporary phase of the women s movement in the 1960s various anthologies devoted to the poetry of women have articulated and defined a distinctive sensibility attuned to the particularities of a woman s life in our time Although much has been written recently about the male role in our society as well the discussion generally has assumed a sociopsychological or mythic perspective Poetry Moramarco and Zolynas believe can reveal most about the nature of male life today especially the enormous changes men have experienced in recent years As the editors state in their introduction A quiet revolution has been taking place in men s poetry over the past few decades as men have been chronicling the history of their hearts and have been examining those relationships central to their being in the world their connections to their fathers and mothers their own sense of fatherhood and of being sons and brothers their marriages divorces and other aspects of their love lives as well as the ways they conceive of maleness and femaleness The poems collected in Men of Our Time 257 from more than 170 poets include a wide mix of ethnic and racial perspectives that reflect the multicultural tenor of American life They reveal men s most intimate feelings about the loss of childhood sexual anxieties and fantasies aging self sufficiency and dependency and the perennial quest for a masculine identity Above all the poems are unapologetically grounded in a distinctly male experience or imagination Men of Our Time reclaims a poetry that is connected to and expressive of men s lives in the closing decade of the twentieth century The Cambridge
