A Practical Guide to Academic Research Graham Birley,Neil Moreland,2014-05-12 Covering all aspects of research methodology this research tool also deals with planning issues and self management techniques needed by the researcher It contains information on data analysis and advice for staff members needing support from their institutions to pursue research The Yale Law School Guide to Research in American Legal History John B. Nann, Morris L.

Cohen, 2018-06-19 The study of legal history has a broad application that extends well beyond the interests of legal historians An attorney arguing a case today may need to cite cases that are decades or even centuries old and historians studying political or cultural history often encounter legal issues that affect their main subjects Both groups need to understand the laws and legal practices of past eras This essential reference is intended for the many nonspecialists who need to enter this arcane and often tricky area of research Subject Analysis in Online Catalogs Hope A. Olson, John J. Boll, 2001-09-15 A detailed analysis of the complex process of providing subject access in online catalogues The text examines the interaction of the several necessary components such as the catalogue database users hardware and software and search and retrieval software Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Daniel N. Joudrey, Arlene G. Taylor, David P.

Miller, 2015-09-29 A new edition of this best selling textbook reintroduces the topic of library cataloging from a fresh modern perspective Not many books merit an eleventh edition but this popular text does Newly updated Introduction to Cataloging and Classification provides an introduction to descriptive cataloging based on contemporary standards explaining the basic tenets to readers without previous experience as well as to those who merely want a better understanding of the process as it exists today The text opens with the foundations of cataloging then moves to specific details and subject matter such as Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR Functional Requirements for Authority Data FRAD the International Cataloging Principles ICP and RDA Unlike other texts the book doesn't presume a close familiarity with the MARC bibliographic or authorities formats ALA's Anglo American Cataloging Rules 2nd Edition revised AACR2R or the International Standard Bibliographic Description ISBD Subject access to library materials is covered in sufficient depth to make the reader comfortable with the principles and practices of subject cataloging and classification In addition the book introduces MARC BIBFRAME and other approaches used to communicate and display bibliographic data Discussions of formatting presentation and administrative issues complete the book questions useful for review and study appear at the end of each chapter Computing for Historians Evan Mawdsley, Thomas Munck, 1993 This guide is intended to introduce historians to some of the ways in which the computer revolution can be of benefit in dealing with their sources and presenting their findings Introduction to Cataloging and Classification Arlene G. Taylor, David Peter Miller, 2006 Offers a practical guide to the world of cataloging and classification This work also addresses such issues as FRBR Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FAST Faceted Application of Subject Terminology and the Semantic Web

Cataloging and Classification Lois Mai Chan, Athena Salaba, 2015-12-14 The fourth edition of the late Lois Mai Chan's classic Cataloging and Classification covers the analysis and representation of methods used in describing organizing and providing access to resources made available in or through libraries Since the last edition published in 2007 there have been dramatic changes in cataloging systems from the Library of Congress The most notable being the shift from AACR2 to Resource Description and Access RDA as the new standard developed by the Library of Congress With the help of the coauthor Athena Salaba this text is modified throughout to conform to the new standard Retaining the overall outline of the previous edition this text presents the essence of library cataloging and classification in terms of three basic functions descriptive cataloging subject access and classification Within this framework all chapters have been rewritten to incorporate the changes that have occurred during the interval between the third and fourth editions In each part the historical development and underlying principles of the retrieval mechanism at issue are treated first because these are considered essential to an understanding of cataloging and classification Discussion and examples of provisions in the standards and tools are then presented in order to illustrate the operations covered in each chapter Divided into five parts a general overview record production and structure encoding formats and metadata records RDA subject access and controlled vocabularies and the organization of library resources each part of the book begins with a list of the standards and tools used in the preparation and processing of that part of the cataloging record covered followed by suggested background readings selected to help the reader gain an overview of the subject to be presented This book is the standard text for the teaching and understanding of cataloging and classification

Historical Research Elizabeth Ann Danto, 2008-09-16 What exactly was the Charity Organization Society Was it a cluster of affluent women imposing their moral propriety on the poor in the early 20th Century Or was it the first concerted effort to professionalize previously random subjective allocations of benefits and entitlements This book will help researchers explore systematically such fascinating questions and debates in social work and social welfare history Mastering how to pose historical questions is as essential as finding the answers This book from its wide ranging coverage of historiographic theory to detailed guidelines for conducting oral history and archival research offers clear and practical research tools how to design a study select primary sources understand the vocabulary of archives determine useful secondary sources and analyze them all The book also features a guide to archives and special collections that details their holdings access and locations and research grants essential knowledge for any researcher The thrill of stumbling across unexplored data in the stacks of a library is notorious Now this clearly written pocket guide will help established scholars as well as doctoral students get the most out of historical data

The Journal of Library History, 1984 Resources in Education, 2001-04 A History of the Development of Alternatives to Animals in Research and Testing John Parascandola, 2024-07-15 Growing public interest in animal welfare issues in recent decades has prompted increased attention to the efforts to develop alternative nonanimal methods for use in biomedical research and product testing In A History of the Development of Alternatives to Animals in Research and Testing the first book length study of the subject John Parascandola traces the history of the concept of alternatives to the use of animals in research and testing in Britain and the United States from its beginnings until it had become firmly established in the scientific and animal protection communities by the end of the 1980s This account of the history of alternatives is set within the context of developments within science animal welfare and politics The book covers the key role played by animal welfare advocates in promoting alternatives the initial resistance to alternatives on the part of many in the scientific community the opportunity provided by alternatives for compromise and cooperation between these two groups and the dominance of the Three Rs reduction refinement and replacement In the Field Robert G. Burgess,2002-11-01 First Published in 2004 An authoritative guide to the problems and procedures associated with data collection and analysis in field research
