Worlds in Miniature Jack Davy, Charlotte Dixon , 2019-07-08 Miniaturisation is the creation of small objects that resemble larger ones usually but not always for purposes different to those of the larger original object Worlds in Miniature brings together researchers working across various regions time periods and disciplines to explore the subject of miniaturisation as a material culture technique It offers original contribution to the field of miniaturisation through its broad geographical scope interdisciplinary approach and deep understanding of miniatures and their diverse contexts Beginning with an introduction by the editors which offers one possible guide to studying and comparing miniatures the following chapters include studies of miniature Neolithic stone circles on Exmoor Ancient Egyptian miniature assemblages miniaturisation under colonialism as practiced by the Makah People of Washington State miniature surf boats from India miniaturised contemporary tourist art of the Warao people of Venezuela and dioramas on display in the Science Museum Interspersing the chapters are interviews with miniature makers including two miniature boat builders at the National Maritime Museum Cornwall and a freelance architectural model maker Professor Susanne K chler concludes the volume with a theoretical study summarising the current state of miniaturisation as a research discipline The interdisciplinary nature of the volume makes it suitable reading for anthropologists archaeologists historians and artists and for researchers in related fields across the social sciences

Chats on Old Miniatures

(Illustrations) J. J. Foster, 2015-02-03 Acceding to the wish of my Publishers that the following pages should be included in a certain well known series I have termed them Chats on Old Miniatures but confess that I consider the title somewhat of a misnomer inasmuch as I have been accustomed to regard a chat as a conversation between two or more persons interested in a given subject whereas in this little volume it is obvious that I have done all the talking In the interval which has elapsed since my larger works appeared the most important event in connection with the subject of Miniatures is in my opinion the Exhibition of Works of Art of the Eighteenth Century at the French National Library in 1906 The concluding chapter of this book gives the impressions afforded by that extremely interesting and instructive Exhibition In the hope that they will be of use to the general reader I have amplified my references to the public collections of Miniatures in this country especially those at Hertford House and the Jones Collection so rich in the works of Petitot Miss E M Foster has been of much service in revising the proofs and passing this work through the press I have only to add one word and that relates to the illustrations I am fortunate in being able to put before my readers so large a selection of choice examples of the art of miniature painting This I owe to the generosity of the owners of the originals to whom I desire once again to express my indebtedness and thanks

The riveting story of how one woman rose from simple beginnings to become one of the most sought after miniaturists of the Gilded Age Richly illustrated with over 70 photos including color images of her rare surviving works No other female portrait artist had the notoriety or esteemed clientele that Amalia Kussner did Although photography was on the rise during the late 1800s miniatures had a feeling and soul to them that photos could not capture Amalia's portraits provided a grandeur that presented Gilded Age elites as American royalty Her subjects included reigning social queen Mrs Caroline Astor Mrs John Jacob Astor Consuelo Vanderbilt Mamie Fish dollar heiress Minnie Paget Edward VII of England Czar Nicholas II and Alexandra of Russia and diamond magnate Cecil Rhodes From the mid 1890s to 1910 having a Kussner miniature was just as important as owning fine jewelry or a mansion in Newport Amalia's style was also provocative for the late Victorian period Her subjects were draped in off the shoulder satin or tulle with their hair loosely pinned around their heads and tendrils framing their faces She kept the women's best features but gave them an almost mythical appearance akin to the fairy queen Titania in A Midsummer Night's Dream Amalia Kussner has been included along with other nineteenth century women artists in the first wave of feminism in large part because she commanded very high commissions comparable to male artists of the time She was fascinating and sometimes mysterious particularly regarding her sudden marriage to lawyer Charles du Pont Coudert She achieved fame and fortune but her story also revealed a few lawsuits scandals and lies Miniature Worlds
