The Equality of Shadows Charl-Pierre Naudé, 2024 When an unusual building appeared overnight in a remote northern Cape community in the 1970s and disappeared a few weeks later it seemed to point to a series of baffling existential overlaps Some individuals claimed that occasionally they found themselves on the other side of a restive civil war divide in identity embodiments that were highly contrary versions of themselves In other cases absurd social situations seemed to mock normal reality by alternating with it When a small town journalist reported on the events his quiet life became cruelly disrupted by unwanted attention Traumatized and adrift the journalist later wrote up his story He believed he had narrowly escaped the disappearance of an entire region a place nobody has ever hear of and its people including the love of his life The Equality of Shadows is about the vagaries of identity love and time Page 4 of cover

The Book of Shadows Don Paterson, 2004 Eloquent illuminating and intimate The Book of Shadows is where the profound the poetic and the profane meet to glorious effect an hour to tell me things they know love God art sex death work and the spirit imagination and conduct of the human animal Writing with the same mixture of high seriousness dark humour and lyric precision that define his poetry Don Paterson has made a book to carry everywhere and open anywhere to brighten or darken the moment but always to administer a jolt to the idling mind detail We should remember this when we see those men and women seemingly in love with their own decline
