From Tomorrow and Other Stories H. Beam Piper, 2015-11-08 Along the U shaped table the subdued clatter of dinnerware and the buzz of conversation was dying out the soft music that drifted down from the overhead sound outlets seemed louder as the competing noises diminished The feast was drawing to a close and Dallona of Hadron fidgeted nervously with the stem of her wineglass as last moment doubts assailed her The old man at whose right she sat noticed and reached out to lay his hand on hers My dear you're worried he said softly You of all people shouldn't be you know The theory isn't complete she replied And I could wish for more positive verification I'd hate to think I'd got you into this Garnon of Roxor laughed No no he assured her I'd decided upon this long before you announced the results of your experiments Ask Girzon he'll bear me out That's true the young man who sat at Garnon's left said leaning forward Father has meant to take this step for a long time He was waiting until after the election and then he decided to do it now to give you an opportunity to make experimental use of it The man on Dallona's right added his voice Like the others at the table he was of medium stature brown skinned and dark eyed with a wide mouth prominent cheekbones and a short square jaw Unlike the others he was armed with a knife and pistol on his belt and on the breast of his black tunic he wore a scarlet oval patch on which a pair of black wings with a tapering silver object between them had been superimposed

Waramingo's Boys and Other Stories Judith A. Lewis, 2007-08-17

A BOLD WALKABOUT ACROSS THE LAND OF VISION IMAGINATION AND REALITY The stories in this book are a combination of my imagination vision and experiences and contacts writes storyteller Judith A Lewis about this compelling collection of 65 stories about the Australian Outback the Pacific India and traveling They came to me in vivid detail and I felt compelled to share these insights into a richer way of looking at our relationship to the Earth Her theme is the journey across landscapes through cultures or into the vivid realms of visionary experience Lewis writes evocatively about traveling in spirit and body across Aboriginal and cultural terrains from meeting kangaroo spirits to long lost fathers But she writes with equal insight and warmth about the enigmas of the heart its secrets joys aspirations and epiphanies A twelve year old girl survives an illness by communing with the waratah in bloom A traveler in Bombay is arrested by beauty amidst the frenetic urban haze Two twins separated in early childhood journey towards each other A homeless man constantly walks the highways to bury his past An Aboriginal medicine man named Waramingo meets the Dreamtime ancestors A lot of the visionary stories pertain to the land and its secrets and those who visit it from afar Lewis says I believe that the Earth is alive and awaiting our recognition as are the other dimensions that we all could inhabit I hope my stories help you remember what you already know that there is no separation that everything from stones to stars is part of us on this lovely planet

One Trip More, and Other Stories Anne Manning, 1870 A Treatise on the Vine Disease ... James Cuthill, 1871 The Lost Domain Alain-Fournier, 2025-06-03 I am looking for something still more mysterious for the path you read about in books the old lane choked with undergrowth whose entrance the weary prince could not discover The Lost Domain 1913 is an adventure story as well as a lyrical homage to life in pre war rural France One of France's best loved and most read novels of all time it is a tale of growing up friendship love and loss threaded through with traits of romance fantasy and make believe Fran ois Seurel the son of a schoolteacher recounts events of his adolescence that revolve around his friend Augustin Meaulnes a bold dreamer who stumbles into an elaborate f t e at a mysterious lost domain falls in love yet seems destined never again to find the bewitching location nor his beloved Much of the narrative circles round the question of whether the past can ever be revived The simple pleasures and sensory delights of rural childhood the exhilarations and disappointments of youthful discoveries and the poignant confrontation of dream and reality are combined in prose that modulates between face paced and poetic At just twenty seven years old Alain Fournier died in action in 1914 the year after the publication of The Lost Domain which remains a nostalgic portrait of the France that was shattered by the First World War ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Adopting the Tune of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within That Was Lost And Other Stories

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick connection, the melodic beauty and psychological symphony produced by the prepared word frequently diminish into the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of That Was Lost And Other Stories an enchanting literary treasure full of natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the poignant review, we will examine the book's central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing type, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
