Publishing and Culture Dallas John Baker, Donna Lee Brien, 2019-04-10 Publishing is currently going through dramatic changes from globalisation to the digital revolution A whole culture of events practices and processes has emerged centred around books and writing which means that scholars of publishing need to understand it as a social and cultural practice as much as it is a business This book explores the culture practice and business of book production distribution publication and reception It discusses topics as diverse as emerging publishing models book making writers festivals fan communities celebrity authors new publishing technologies self publishing book design and the role of class race gender and sexuality in publishing or book culture This volume will be of interest to those in the disciplines of publishing studies creative writing English literature cultural studies and cultural industries

The Rise of Corporate Publishing and Its Effects on Authorship in Early Twentieth Century America Kim Becnel, 2012-12-06 This study examines the way that the modernization and incorporation of the American publishing industry in the early twentieth century both helped to foment the emerging late industrial cultural hierarchy and capitalized on that same hierarchy to increase readership and profits More importantly however it attempts to trace the ways in which recently introduced marketing techniques reconceived ideas of audience and new paradigms in author publisher relations affected American writers of the 1930s and the literature they produced Using case studies of authors chosen from various points on the spectrum of so called high middle and lowbrow literature the author demonstrates that contrary to popular critical opinion this new publishing landscape dominated by big business practices and strict categorizations of audiences writers and works did not ruin or corrupt literature but in fact enriched our literary heritage by providing authors with inspiration and opportunity that they may not otherwise have had

The Edinburgh Companion to Women in Publishing, 1900-2020 Nicola Wilson, Claire Battershill, Sophie Heywood, Marrisa Joseph, Daniela La Penna, Helen Southworth, Alice Staveley and Elizabeth Willson Gordon, 2024-02-29 Women s creative labour in publishing has often been overlooked This book draws on dynamic new work in feminist book history and publishing studies to offer the first comparative collection exploring women s diverse deeply embedded work in modern publishing Highlighting the value of networks collaboration and archives the companion sets out new ways of reading women s contributions to the production and circulation of global print cultures With an international intergenerational set of contributors using diverse methodologies essays explore women working in publishing transatlantically on the continent and beyond the Anglosphere The book combines new work on high profile women publishers and editors alongside analysis of women s work as translators illustrators booksellers advertisers patrons and publisher s readers complemented by new oral histories and interviews with leading women in publishing today The first collection of its kind the companion helps establish and shape a thriving new research field
