Of Hrabal:

The Book of Hrabal Péter Esterházy, 1995 An elaborate elegant homage to the great Czech storyteller Bohumil Hrabal author of Closely Watched Trains The Book of Hrabal is also a farewell to the years of communism in Eastern Europe and a glowing paean to the mixed blessings of domestic life Bohumil Hrabal. A Full-length Portrait Jiří Pelán, 2019 Described as one of the great prose stylists of the twentieth century Bohumil Hrabal ranks among the most important and widely translated Czech authors Ji Pelán a respected scholar of Czech French and Italian literature approaches Hrabal as a comparatist expertly situating him within the context of European and world literature as he explores the entirety of Hrabal's oeuvre and its development over sixty years Praised for its concise clear and readable style Bohumil Hrabal A Full length Portrait offers international readers an important Czech perspective on the world class author Contains 32 photographs of Bohumil Hrabal a list of his works English translations to date and a bibliography of international scholarship Grotesque Revisited Laurynas Katkus, 2013-07-26 This collection of essays aims to recapitulate the state of grotesque poetics in modern and post modern writing It concentrates on Central and Eastern Europe introducing the Western reader to the variety and ingenuity of this region's literary traditions ranging from German and Russian to Lithuanian and Romanian literatures At the same time it seeks to highlight the importance of the grotesque mode of writing in the region It includes new insights and interpretations of theories on grotesque and Menippean satire including but not limited to the works of Mikhail Bakhtin The historic scope of the volume ranges from the legacies of Nazi dictatorship and exile to the post communist times but it is especially focused on the Soviet era Scholars not only from Central and Eastern Europe but also from Great Britain Ireland and Turkey analyze the literary devices of the grotesque examining the relationship between the socio political background and subversive representations of the grotesque Many studies take on a comparative and transnational approach Alternatively some studies aim to present important and innovative creators of grotesque texts in greater detail This book which features among others contributions by Professor Galin Tihanov George Steiner Chair of Queen Mary College at the University of London Professor Alexander Ivanitsky of the Russian State University of Humanities Professor Algis Kalda of the Lithuanian Institute of Literature and Folklore Professor Peter Arnds of Trinity College Dublin and Dr Carmen Popescu of the University of Craiova Romania will appeal to a broad academic readership including both students and professors wanting to discover more about the literary grotesque and modern Central and Eastern European literature and culture

The Nonconformists Brian K. Goodman, 2023-06-20 The Cold War was an era of surprising connections between American and Czech literary cultures Major writers met behind the Iron Curtain while others smuggled translated and adapted works from the other side Brian K Goodman explores the artistic and political consequences arguing that the movement of literature inspired new forms of dissent Avant-garde to New Wave Jonathan L. Owen, 2013-02-01 The cultural liberalization of communist Czechoslovakia in the 1960s produced many artistic accomplishments not least the celebrated films of the Czech New Wave This movement saw filmmakers use their new freedom to engage with traditions of the avant garde especially Surrealism This book explores the avant garde s influence over the New Wave and considers the political implications of that influence The close analysis of selected films ranging from the Oscar winning Closely Observed Trains to the aesthetically challenging Daisies is contextualized by an account of the Czech avant garde and a discussion of the films immediate cultural and political background The Sad King of Czech Literature Bohumil Hrabal Radko Pytlík,2000

Picturing the Language of Images Laurence Petit,2014-04-11 Picturing the Language of Images is a collection of thirty three previously unpublished essays that explore the complex and ever evolving interaction between the verbal and the visual The uniqueness of this volume lies in its bringing together scholars from around the world to provide a broad synchronic and diachronic exploration of the relationship between text and image as well as a reflection on the limits of representation through a re thinking of the very acts of reading and viewing While covering a variety of media such as literature painting photography film and comics across time from the 18th century to the 21st century this collection also provides a special focus on the work of particular authors such as A S Byatt W G Sebald and Art Spiegelman The

Translator as Mediator of Cultures Humphrey Tonkin,Maria Esposito Frank,2010 If it is bilingualism that transfers information and ideas from culture to culture it is the translator who systematizes and generalizes this process The translator serves as a mediator of cultures In this collection of essays based on a conference held at the University of Hartford a group of individuals professional translators linguists and literary scholars exchange their views on translation and its power to influence literary traditions and to shape cultural and economic identities The authors explore the implications of their views on the theory and craft of translation both written and oral in an era of unsettling globalizing forces Writing out to be published abroad tamizdat as well as the range of literature that can be classified as samizdat drawing attention to movements frequently overlooked by literary critics In his final previously unpublished essay Machovec examines Jirous s Report on the Third Czech Musical Revival not as a merely historical document but as literature itself Transformative Fictions Daniel Just,2022-07-27 Transformative Fictions World Literature and Personal Change engages with current debates in world literature over the past twenty years addressing the nature of literary influence in centers and peripheries the formation of transnational literary and pedagogical canons and the role of translation and regionalism in how we relate to texts from around the globe The author Daniel Just argues for a supranational but sub global perspective of regions that emphasizes practical reasons for reading and focuses on the potential of literary texts to stimulate personal transformation in readers One of the recurring dilemmas in these debates is the issue of delimitation of world literature The trouble with the world as a frame of reference is that no single researcher is bound to have the in depth knowledge and linguistic skills to discuss works from all countries In response this book revives literary theory and recasts it for the purposes of world literature by making a case for the continuing relevance of literature in the age of new media With the examples of fictional and nonfictional writings by Milan Kundera Witold Gombrowicz and Bohumil Hrabal Just shows that regional literatures offer differing methods of activating readers and thereby prompting personal change This book would be of general interest to anyone who wants to explore personal change through literature but is particularly indispensable for literary professionals researchers and postgraduate and graduate students Fiction Acquisition/fiction Management Georgine N.

Olson,1998 Provides librarians and library managers with information on how to start and maintain a fiction collection offering guidelines procedures and interviews with professionals Tells how to select materials how to build a collection using suggestions from patrons how to use book reviews as criteria for selection and how to make use of WLN conspectus software to decide what selections are most marketable Also lists sources such as specific databases for collecting specific genres For librarians at public and academic libraries Writers Under Siege Jiri Holy,Jan Culik,2010-08-09 An history that presents a canvas of post war Czech literary developments within the cultural and political context of the times It provides information about the many English language translations from Czech literature and the circumstances in which these translations came about Cold War Books in the 'Other' Europe and What Came After Jiřina Šmejkalová,2010-11-19 Drawing on analyses of the socio cultural context of East and Central Europe with a special focus on the Czech cultural dynamics of the Cold War and its aftermath this book offers a study of the making and breaking of the centrally controlled system of book production and reception It explores the social material and symbolic reproduction of the printed text in both official and alternative spheres and patterns of dissemination and reading Building on archival research statistical data media analyses and in depth interviews with the participants of the post 1989 de centralization and privatization of the book world it revisits the established notions of censorship and revolution in order to uncover people s performances that contributed to both the reproduction and erosion of the old regime      Subversive Adaptations Petr Bubeníček, 2017-11-07 This book deals with film adaptations of literary works created in Communist Czechoslovakia between 1954 and 1969 such as The Fabulous World of Jules Verne Zeman 1958 Marketa Lazarová 1967 and The Joke Jirě 1969 Bubeník treats a historically significant period around which myths and misinformation have arisen The book is broad in scope and examines aesthetic political social and cultural issues It sets out to disprove the notion that the state controlled film industry behind the Iron Curtain produced only aesthetically uniform works pandering to official ideology Bubeník's main aim is to show how the political situation of Communist Czechoslovakia moulded the film adaptations created there but also how these same works in turn shaped the sociocultural conditions of the 1950s and the 1960s      Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2014-01-27 Europe Since 1945 An Encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference work of some 1 700 entries in two volumes Its scope includes all of Europe and the successor states to the former Soviet Union The volumes provide a broad coverage of topics with an emphasis on politics governments organizations people and events crucial to an understanding of postwar Europe Also includes 100 maps and photos      Kierkegaard's Influence on Literature, Criticism, and Art Jon Bartley Stewart, 2013 Vol 2 is dedicated to the use of Kierkegaard by later Danish writers Almost from the beginning Kierkegaard's works were standard reading for these authors Danish novelists and critics from the Modern Breakthrough movement in the 1870s were among the first to make extensive use of his writings These included the theoretical leader of the movement the critic Georg Brandes who wrote an entire book on Kierkegaard and the novelists Jens Peter Jacobsen and Henrik Pontoppidan      Starlight and Stargazers Helena Goscilo, 2024-05-21 Celebrification has thrived for centuries in literature theater music and other cultural spheres as vividly illustrated by Byron Sarah Bernhardt and Paganini It especially effloresced in cinema after the symbolically named Lumière brothers pioneered movies as light projected moving life to be contemplated and shared in the intimate darkness of theaters Actors and actresses such as Valentino and Garbo acquired the status of divine beings whose life on and offscreen stimulated fascination and a passionate devotion most frequently invested in religious figures The recent explosion in social media has only amplified immeasurably the scale and intensity of that adulation Yearning for the seemingly transcendent fans as mere mortals seek contact with celebrities as objects of worship that like nocturnal stars are simultaneously remote yet accessible Starlight and Stargazers examines the multifaceted nature and specific manifestations of film celebrification in Czechoslovakia the Czech Republic Poland Soviet Russia Russia and Ukraine before and after 1991      Multilingual Europe, Multilingual Europeans , 2015-06-29 Multilingualism is a crucial if often unrecognized marker of new European identities In this collection of essays we observe how a plurilinguist and pluricultural political entity practices and theorizes multilingualism We ask which types of multilingualism are defined encouraged or discouraged at the level of official policies but also at the level of communities We look at speakers of hegemonic or minority languages at travellers and long term migrants or their children and analyse how their conversations are represented in official documents visual art cinema literature and popular culture The volume is divided into two parts that focus respectively on Multilingual Europe and Multilingual Europeans The first series of chapters explore the extent to which multilingualism is treated as both a challenge and an asset by the European Union examine which factors contribute to the proliferation of languages globalisation the enlargement of the European Union and EU language policies The second part of the volume concentrates on the ways in which cultural productions represent the linguistic practices of Europeans in a way that emphasizes the impossibility to separate language from culture nationality but also class ethnicity or gender The chapters suggest that each form of plurilingualism needs to be carefully analysed rather than celebrated or condemned      Czech and Slovak Cinema Peter Hames, 2010-08-09 Examines the key themes and traditions of Czech and Slovak cinema linking inter war and post war cinemas together with developments in the post Communist period      An Introduction to Twentieth-Century Czech Fiction Robert Porter, 2001-01-01 This is an appraisal of some of the best Czech fiction of the 20th century After a brief introduction there are chapters on Hasek Hrabal Skorecky Pavel Klima and a final chapter on Hodrova Viewegh and Topol
