The Gospel of Matthew and Christian Judaism David C. Sim,1998-01-01 In this meticulously researched study David C Sim reconstructs the Matthean community at the time the Gospel was written and traces its full history Dr Sim demonstrates that the Matthean community should be located in Antioch in the late first century and he argues that the history of this community can only be understood in the context of the factionalism of the early Christian movement He identifies two distinctive and opposing Christian perspectives the first represented by the Jerusalem church and the Matthean community which maintained that the Christian message must be preached within the context of Judaism and the second represented by Paul and the Pauline communities in which Christians were not expected to observe the Jewish law Dr Sim reconstructs not only the conflict between Matthew s Christian Jewish community and the Pauline churches but also its further conflicts with the Jewish and Gentile worlds in the aftermath of the Jewish war
