Dyslexia in Higher Education Amanda T. Abbott-Jones, 2021-11-04 Learn about dyslexia's association with anxiety and coping from the viewpoint of dyslexic students backed up by evidence and research The Nature of the Machine and the Collapse of Cybernetics Alcibiades Malapi-Nelson, 2017-07-03 This book is a philosophical exploration of the theoretical causes behind the collapse of classical cybernetics as well as the lesson that this episode can provide to current emergent technologies Alcibiades Malapi Nelson advances the idea that the cybernetic understanding of the nature of a machine entails ontological and epistemological consequences that created both material and theoretical conundrums However he proposes that given our current state of materials research scientific practices and research tools there might be a way for cybernetics to flourish this time The book starts with a historical and theoretical articulation of cybernetics in order to proceed with a philosophical explanation of its collapse emphasizing the work of Alan Turing Ross Ashby and John von Neumann Subsequently Malapi Nelson unveils the common metaphysical signature shared between cybernetics and emergent technologies identifying this signature as transhumanist in nature Finally avenues of research that may allow these disruptive technologies to circumvent the cybernetic fate are indicated It is proposed that emerging technologies ultimately entail an affirmation of humanity

The Handbook of Life-Span Development, Volume 2, 2010-08-09 In the past fifty years scholars of human development have been moving from studying change in humans within sharply defined periods to seeing many more of these phenomenon as more profitably studied over time and in relation to other processes The Handbook of Life Span Development Volume 2 Social and Emotional Development presents the study of human development conducted by the best scholars in the 21st century Social workers counselors and public health workers will receive coverage of the social and emotional aspects of human change across the lifespan Cross Cultural Anxiety Charles D. Spielberger, 2018-10-24 This report provides evidence of the universality of anxiety as a Fundamental Emotion Across Cultures And The Differentiation Between anxiety as a transitory state and a stable personality trait It is of interest to those concerned with the psychological concept of strait trait anxiety HAPM Component Life Manual Hapm Publications Ltd., 2020-10-28 This publication breaks new ground It is the first document to provide extensive life span assessments for insurance purposes for a wide range of building components which are classified within the concept of quality specifications A further benefit is that it does not seek to be prescriptive It indicative benchmarks against which new or differing specifications can be assessed in that sense it is both robust and flexible Promoting Healing and Resilience in People with Cancer: A Nursing Perspective Mary Grossman, 2022-12-08 This is the first Nursing book on cancer care designed around a conceptual model of whole person care Key concepts are stress healing resilience and health As a clinical model nursing goals desired outcomes key concepts and proposed psychosocial interventions with patients and family caregivers advance the practice of clinical nursing toward a more comprehensive understanding of the whole person with cancer and their loved ones As a model for teaching nursing students about chronic illness it provides a scientific basis for students to learn how to assess and care for the whole person and his loved one As a model for clinical research in the field of cancer care it serves as a predicate for the development evaluation and interpretation of clinical interventions The model is a dynamic framework that both informs and is informed by research findings It is hoped that future research findings will reveal the optimal combination of interventions to provide comprehensive care across clinical contexts With a patient centred humanistic focus anchored by the quality of the nurse patient and family caregiver relationships it is hoped that the nurse s technical procedural and medical expertise may complement rather than define the nurse s approach to the whole patient and family The book is structured to facilitate the reader s easy access to needed information Each chapter examines a key concept of the model and is organized around an introduction learning objectives definitions and relevant research findings that serve as the scientific predicate for suggested interventions discussed in Part 4 Nursing approaches Clinical and personal anecdotes tables and figures illustrate the concepts under discussion Nurse practitioners clinic nurse specialists nursing professors graduate students and nurse researchers may find this book a useful reference for conceptualizing whole person care and for determining relevant interventions that promote healing resilience and health But it is also relevant for family doctors and fourth year students learning to care for the whole person with a chronic illness

The Adaptation Process of a Resettled Community to the Newly-Built Environment A Study of the Nubian Experience in Egypt Wael Salah Fahmi, 2014-04-01 Generally construction of dams is regarded as means of economic progress in many countries Major consequences of such projects are the inundation of upstream areas and the resettlement of entire communities in newly built environments where they experience dramatic transformation in their lifestyles The present study takes the Nubian resettlement experience after the creation of Lake Nasser that submerged their old settlements along the river Nile Following their resettlement the design of the newly built environment disrupted the Nubian traditional lifestyles and patterns of privacy mechanisms territoriality and social interaction The inadequacy of the newly built environment was mainly attributed to the Nubians transfer from spacious homes in the old villages to compact contiguous houses in the new settlements The arrangement of these resettlement state built houses distributed on the basis of household size has further resulted in the fragmentation and the dispersion of traditional kinship based neighborhoods Within an interdisciplinary approach the study is based on theoretical historical and conceptual themes and on empirical research It sets out to examine the households responses towards and adaptation mechanisms with the newly built environment looking critically at the achievements of imposed top down planning in meeting the socio cultural and economic needs of those resettled
