Media, Process, and the Social Construction of Crime Gregg Barak, 2013-10-28
First published in 1995, one of the most pervasive forms of social control in our society is the mass media. The public learns from television, newspapers, magazines, movies and books what is happening in the world and how to interpret it. The problem, however, is that full or complete interpretations of reality are not presented. In short, reality itself, clear and unadorned, is not to be found in the information provided by the media. Instead, media presentations consist of those various viewpoints that succeed in capturing the minds and imaginations of the masses or in terms of the 1992 presidential campaign that successfully put the winning spin on information. Barak and others believe that criminologists should participate in the various media presentations of crime and justice. By bringing their knowledge to bear on media presentations, criminologists can help make some news more representative and less distorted of the social reality of crime. What Real Cops Do Douglas Stoneman, 2011-02-28 The author went to great length to obtain first hand information and knowledge of what our police officers go through each day and night. They have given of their time and blood to ensure our safety and under the most horrific circumstances. The lines you read will give first hand account of how it feels to respond to a fatal crash, investigate a horrendous murder or simply help a person in distress. The author has done all the work for you. All you must do is read and enjoy. Terror Train Al Feldstein, 2020-08-11 This collection features all of the stories Feldstein created for both of EC Comics crime and horror titles including the very first appearances of The Crypt Keeper and the Vault Keeper. This volume collects stories Feldstein wrote and drew about The Machine Gun, Mad Mobsters and The Case of the Floating Corpse as well such horror gems as The Mummy's Curse, The Thing in the Swamp and our title story, Terror Train. Plus the most unlikely origin story of them all, the tongue in cheek origin of EC Comics itself in Horror Beneath the Streets. There are more than 30 stories in all with essays and commentary by EC experts. The Cops Are Robbers Gerald W. Clemente, Kevin Stevens, 1988-12-01 Con Trails... Salvatore A. Joseph, 2013-06 A crafty Cops and Robbers tale with a twist of Vietnam mixed in. Try to follow the evidence trail as the robbers move from state to state robbing banks. See if you can figure out the clues to the mystery inside. A great read if you like cops and robbers, real crime drama told by a Police Detective in the style of 'catch me if you think you can'. Crime and Violence in the Media United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee on Crime, 1984
