Cornish Rhapsody:

A Cornish Rhapsody Rudi Mock, 2001 Mobilizing Music in Wartime British Film Heather Wiebe, Teaching Professor in Music and Liberal Studies Heather Wiebe, 2024-10-11 Mobilizing Music in Wartime British Film examines the preoccupation with art music and total war that animated British films of the 1940s Cornish Rhapsody J. M. LONG, 1983

Theme from Cornish Rhapsody Hubert Bath, 1944 Cornish Rhapsody John Hubert Bath, 1978 The Gendered Score: Music in 1940s Melodrama and the Woman's Film Heather Laing, 2017-07-05 Heather Laing examines for the first time the issues of gender and emotion that underpin the classical style of film scoring but that have until now remained unquestioned and untheorized thus providing a benchmark for thinking on more recent and alternative styles of scoring Many theorists have discussed this type of music in film as a signifier of emotion and the feminine a capacity in which it is frequently associated with female characters The full effect of such an association on either female or male characterization however has not been examined This book considers the effects of this association by progress through three stages cultural historical precedents the generic parameters of melodrama and the woman's film and the narrativization of music in film through diegetic performance and the presence of musicians as characters Case studies of specific films provide textual and musical analyses and the genres of melodrama and the woman's film have been chosen as representative not only of the epitome of the Hollywood scoring style but also of the narrative association of women emotion and music Laing leads to the conclusion that music functions as more than merely a signifier of emotion Rather it takes a crucial role in both indicating and determining how emotion is actually understood as part of the construction of gender and its representation in film

This book examines the relationship between narrative film and reality as seen through the lens of on screen classical concert performance By investigating these scenes wherein the performance of music is foregrounded in the narrative Winters uncovers how concert performance reflexively articulates music s importance to the ontology of film The book asserts that narrative film of a variety of aesthetic approaches and traditions is no mere copy of everyday reality but constitutes its own filmic reality and that the music heard in a film s underscore plays an important role in distinguishing film reality from the everyday As a result concert scenes are examined as sites for provocative interactions between these two realities in which real world musicians appear in fictional narratives and an audience s suspension of disbelief is problematised In blurring the musical experiences of onscreen observers and participants these concert scenes also allegorize music s role in creating a shared subjectivity between film audience and character and prompt Winters to propose a radically new vision of music s role in narrative cinema wherein musical underscore becomes part of a shared audio visual space that may be just as accessible to the characters as the music they encounter in scenes of concert performance Billboard , 1950-10-14 In its 114th year
