Daily Graphic Sam Clegg,1992-06 Reading Cultures Molly Abel Travis,1998 Molly Abel Travis unites reader theory with an analysis of historical conditions and various cultural contexts in this discussion of the reading and reception of twentieth century literature in the United States Travis moves beyond such provisional conclusions as the text produces the reader or the reader produces the text and considers the ways twentieth century readers and texts attempt to constitute and appropriate each other at particular cultural moments and according to specific psychosocial exigencies She uses the overarching concept of the reader in and out of the text both to differentiate the reader implied by the text from the actual reader and to discuss such in and out movements that occur in the process of reading as the alternation between immersion and interactivity and between role playing and unmasking Unlike most reader theorists Travis is concerned with the agency of the reader Her conception of agency in reading is informed by performance psychoanalytic and feminist theories This agency involves compulsive reiterative performance in which readers attempt to find themselves by going outside the self engaging in literary role playing in the hope of finally and fully identifying the self through self differentiation Furthermore readers never escape a social context they are both constructed and actively constructing in that they read as part of interpretive communities and are involved in collaborative creativity or what Kendall Walton calls collective imagining

Making Peace in Drug Wars Benjamin Lessing,2017-12-07 Over the past thirty years a new form of conflict has ravaged Latin America s largest countries with well armed drug cartels fighting not only one another but the state itself In Colombia Mexico and Brazil leaders cracked down on cartels in hopes of restoring the rule of law and the state s monopoly on force Instead cartels fought back with bullets and bribes driving spirals of violence and corruption that make mockeries of leaders state building aims Fortunately some policy reforms quickly curtailed cartel state conflict but they proved tragically difficult to sustain Why do cartels fight states if not to topple or secede from them Why do some state crackdowns trigger and exacerbate cartel state conflict while others curb it This study argues that brute force repression generates incentives for cartels to fight back while policies that condition repression on cartel violence can effectively deter cartel state conflict The politics of drug war however make conditional policies all too fragile Digital Marketing Strategy Niko Lahtinen,Kimmo Pulkka,Heikki Karjaluoeto,Joel Mero,2023-07-01 This cutting edge book presents a detailed overview of digital marketing strategy which has evolved following rapid digitalization that occurred during the COVID 19 pandemic Providing detailed examinations of different digital marketing techniques it demonstrates how organizations digital marketing strategies can be developed and implemented
