 Library of Congress,2011 Sermons from the Flemish, tr. by a Catholic priest. Vol. Latrta ,1885 A Mission for Justice Mary A. Ward,2002 Founded in 1930 as the result of efforts by several black Catholic laywomen Queen of Angels was the first African American Catholic congregation in Newark New Jersey The church quickly embarked on an outreach campaign that endured for decades and affected the entire Newark community black and white Catholic and Protestant By the 1960 s many people looked to Queen of Angels as a model of social and civil rights activism In A Mission for Justice Mary Ward places Queen of Angels within its broader historical religious and social context and explores the church s struggle for justice within the Catholic Church and in society as a whole The reach of Queen of Angels extended far beyond its own membership For example while riots erupted in other cities across the country after the murder of Martin Luther King Jr Queen of Angels played an instrumental role in organizing the Walk for Understanding a peaceful march of twenty five thousand blacks and whites through the heart of the inner city That event and the ethos that inspired it gave birth to the New Community Corporation the largest nonprofit housing corporation in the country led by former Queen of Angels priest William Linder Today Queen of Angels is one of several African American Catholic parishes in Newark and its mission is now more pastoral than activist But the church continues as a home to various community based programs working to improve the lives of Newark s residents Based on nine years of research A Mission for Justice draws on oral histories of parishioners pastors nuns and layworkers at Queen of Angels as well as on documents from various private collections Ward s study will be valuable reading for those interested in African American and church history as well as the history of social activism and the Civil Rights Movement The Author Mary A Ward is an adjunct professor of religion at Fordham University Redemption and Restoration David Matzko McCarthy,Trudy D. Conway,Vicki Schieber,2017 The Catholic Church teaches that punishment must have a constructive and redemptive purpose and that it be coupled with treatment and when possible restitution Rehabilitation and restoration must include the spiritual dimension of healing and hope Since the publication of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishop s 2000 pastoral statement on restorative justice the conversation surrounding the need for criminal justice reform and restorative justice has moved forward Redemption and Restoration responds from a Catholic perspective to help form an educational campaign to equip Catholics and their leaders to participate in the national conversation on this issue create the programs needed to assist in healing the harm caused by crime and restore our communities The book develops the traditional Catholic understanding of justice offers a theological understanding of restorative justice explains how it can be implemented and reflects on the practical arguments for restorative justice Grounded in the stories of real people Redemption and Restoration helps readers gain a deeper understanding of how this affects us all as a country and a church It includes discussion questions to engage groups in exploring issues related to
