Autistic Company Ruud Hendriks, 2012 Social interactions of autistic and non autistic persons are intriguing In all sorts of situations people with autism are part of the daily life of those around them Such interactions exist despite the lack of familiar ways of attuning to one another In Autistic Company the anthropologist and philosopher Ruud Hendriks himself trained as a care worker for young people with autism investigates what alternative means are sometimes found by autistic and non autistic people to establish a shared existence Unprecedented in scholarly work on autism the book also reflects on how to talk about these unusual ways of getting on together Drawing on methods from both the arts and the social sciences this study covers very diverse sources ranging from literary works to factual writing on autism in science and advisory literature and from autobiographical accounts to ethnographic observations in a home for autistic people Putting familiar concepts to a test Autistic Company wrenches and fiddles with the very distinctions that constitute our sense of self By doing so Hendriks succeeds in getting closer both to autistic and non autistic extremes showing how thin the division between us and them really is L W Nauta in Krisis

Business Ethics in Theory and Practice Patricia Werhane, Alan E. Singer, 2013-04-17 This book originated in a symposium on business ethics that took place in the Faculty of Commerce at the University of Canterbury in September of 1997 Professor Werhane who was a visiting Erskine Fellow provided the keynote address and many of the papers in this collection were originally presented at this symposium We are grateful to Kluwer Publishers for the opportunity to publish these essays in their series on International Business Ethics We want to thank the Olsson Center for Applied Ethics at the Darden School University of Virginia and the Erskine Trust and the Department of Management at the University of Canterbury for their support of Professor Werhane s fellowship research for this text and funding for its production We especially want to thank Lisa Spiro who copy edited and prepared the manuscript for publication

INTRODUCTION AND OVERVIEW This book originated in a symposium on business ethics that took place in the faculty of commerce at the University of Canterbury in September 1997 Professor Werhane who was a visiting Erskine Fellow provided the keynote address Contributions to the proceedings were inter disciplinary spanning theory and practice Subsequent contributions were obtained from within New Zealand and from Asia The book starts off on rather a pessimistic note the new managerialism the kind of thing Scott Adams jokes about in the world famous Dilbert cartoons is economically suspect and psychologically damaging

Last Dance in Havana Eugene Robinson, 2012-11-20 In power for forty four years and counting Fidel Castro has done everything possible to define Cuba to the world and to itself yet not even he has been able to control the thoughts and dreams of his people Those thoughts and dreams are the basis for what may become a post Castro Cuba To more fully understand the future of America s near neighbor veteran reporter Eugene Robinson knew exactly where to look or rather to listen In this provocative work Robinson takes us on a sweaty pulsating and lyrical tour of a country on the verge of revolution using its musicians as a window into its present and future Music is the mother s milk of

Cuban culture Cubans express their fondest hopes their frustrations even their political dissent through music Most Americans think only of salsa and the Buena Vista Social Club when they think of the music of Cuba yet those styles are but a piece of a broad musical spectrum Just as the West learned more about China after the Cultural Revolution by watching From Mao to Mozart so will readers discover the real Cuba the living breathing dying yet striving Cuba Cuban music is both wildly exuberant and achingly melancholy A thick stew of African and European elements it is astoundingly rich and influential to have come from such a tiny island From rap stars who defy the government in their lyrics to violinists and pianists who attend the world's last Soviet style conservatory to international pop stars who could make millions abroad yet choose to stay and work for peanuts Robinson introduces us to unforgettable characters who happily bring him into their homes and backstage discussions Despite Castro's attempts to shut down nightclubs obstruct artists and subsidize only what he wants the musicians and dancers of Cuba cannot stop much less behave Cubans move through their complicated lives the way they move on the dance floor dashing and darting and spinning on a dime seducing joy and fulfillment and next week's supply of food out of a broken system Then at night they take to the real dance floors and invent fantastic new steps Last Dance in Havana is heartwrenching yet ultimately as joyous and hopeful as a rocking club late on a Saturday night

Ethnography and the Corporate Encounter Melissa Cefkin, 2009 Businesses and other organizations are increasingly hiring anthropologists and other ethnographically oriented social scientists as employees consultants and advisors The nature of such work as described in this volume raises crucial questions about potential implications to disciplines of critical inquiry such as anthropology In addressing these issues the contributors explore how researchers encounter and engage sites of organizational practice in such roles as suppliers of consumer insight for product design or marketing or as advisors on work design or business and organizational strategies The volume contributes to the emerging canon of corporate ethnography appealing to practitioners who wish to advance their understanding of the practice of corporate ethnography and providing rich material to those interested in new applications of ethnographic work and the ongoing rethinking of the nature of ethnographic praxis

Challenges in Implementing Corporate Governance John Zinkin, 2011-11-08 John Zinkin's new book on Challenges in Implementing Corporate Governance is a welcome addition for board members and senior management on how to improve corporate governance in the post crisis period John correctly identifies that most boards on underperforming companies have three elements of failure a lack of proper understanding of the business and its strategy a total lack of appreciation of both the strategic and systemic risks created by new product markets and a total failure by boards to ensure that the incentive structures for top management reflect long term needs rather than short term profits thereby putting the company's future at risk John has written a useful and practical handbook that is a must read for all board members on how to improve corporate governance Datuk Seri Panglima Andrew Sheng Chief Adviser China Banking Regulatory Commission and the Boards of the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Authority Sime Darby Berhad and

Khazanah Nasional This timely book will interest those wanting to improve corporate governance and risk management It should also appeal to anyone curious about what caused banks to fail in a number of markets in recent times and the values which led to this failure In considering principles which are essential to good governance ACCA recognizes that corporate governance evolves and improves over time We accept that organizations in different sectors and across the world operate in diverse environments in terms of culture regulation legislation and enforcement What is appropriate in terms of governance for one type of organization will not be appropriate to all organizations John Zinkin s book seeks to address this challenge analyzing the essential cultural and behavioral issues which sit at the heart of the challenges Paul Moxey Head of Risk Management and Corporate Governance Association of Chartered Certified Accountants A scholarly combination of practical guidelines and strategic vision Lady Sylvia Jay CBE Vice Chairman L Oreal UK Independent Director Alcatel Lucent Compagnie de Saint Gobain Lazard Limited and Carrefour This is a highly topical and timely publication Globally the crisis that has gripped the financial services sector following the failure of well known global banks in recent years has focused attention on corporate governance To restore confidence in the financial services sector is a long term goal and effective corporate governance together with the closely associated topic of risk management has gripped not only governments and banks but the public too In this book John Zinkin clearly asserts that financial institutions need to exert their responsibilities beyond their shareholders and far more into the wider group of stakeholders including employees and wider society In considering issues globally John provides a book that is not only thought provoking but pragmatic and useful at a time when stakeholders in our banks need to see real change in transparent practical ways from those charged with governing our banks Ruth Martin Managing Director The Chartered Institute of Securities and Investment Psychology, Or, A View of the Human Soul Frederick August Rauch,1853 Psychology; Or, A View of the Human Soul, Including Anthropology, Adapted for the Use of Colleges Friedrich August Rauch,1841 Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb,2008 This encyclopedia spans the relationships among business ethics and society with an emphasis on business ethics and the role of business in society Unknowning and Astonishment Christopher Scott,2018-01-01 Fairacres Publications 182 In a series of reflective essays Canon Scott puts before us an understanding of the Church which goes beyond a managerial model He urges us to consider again the place of prayer in our lives and to recognise how it changes and develops over time Drawing on the traditional theology of the Eastern Churches and linking this teaching closely with the liturgy he shows how the cataphatic tradition of affirmation is held in tension with the apophatic tradition of negation the way of unknowing Within this tension faith then holds before us the possibility of being drawn to the unapproachable light in sheer astonishment The Making of Global Enterprise Geoffrey Jones,1994 This volume provides new insights to the history of international business The international group of authors drawn from the United States Canada Britain and Japan address two main themes How has global business developed over the last century And what has been its impact on host economies These original and wide ranging essays prefaced by an extensive editorial introduction are required reading in courses on international business

Disruptive Business Mr Alexander Manu, 2012-09-28 Disruptive Business is a provocative and insightful redefinition of innovation as an outcome of human behaviour a dynamic in constant change requiring the shaping of new responses in business and the economy Alexander Manu believes that organizations must treat innovation not as a process to be managed but as an outcome that changes people's lives In Disruptive Business he explains how innovation is the moment when human behaviour is changed by a particular invention discovery or event This position challenges the current understanding of innovation as well as the current ecology in which innovation operates in organizations its management methods tools language focus and metrics The challenge extends to some of the labels currently applied to innovation typologies such as disruptive innovation seen today as addressing purely the technological side of an invention rather than the more complex motivational and behavioural side Alexander Manu considers that a disruption is not manifest in the moment a new technology is introduced The disruption is the human being and manifest only when human motivation embraces the technology and uses it to modify and improve everyday life Our acceptance and appropriation of new technologies creates the business disruption Manu makes the case that successful innovation outcomes are answers to conscious or subconscious goals residing in human motivation and motivation starts in desire This position is consistent with the history of innovations that have changed improved and reshaped human life and also consistent with their roots and ethos Humans are a perpetually wanting animal bound to desire to seek media for a better self and to need innovation In this dynamic innovation is the constant and business is the variable The role of business is to create the tools objects and services through which people can manifest what they want and who they are The book provides a new perspective of current behavioural disruptions which are relevant to the continuity of business as well as a set of practical methodologies for business design aimed at creating innovation outcomes of value to users
