Corresponding Cultures Studies In The Relations Between The Two Literatures Of Wales:

Edward Thomas and World Literary Studies Andrew Webb, 2013-07-15 This book uses models of world literature to present this quintessentially English writer as a pioneering figure in an Anglophone Welsh literary tradition a controversial reading that contributes to the present day reconfiguration of cultural relations between Wales England Scotland The Promotion of Knowledge John Stephen Morrill, John Morrill, 2004-07-15 This is an intriguing collection of reflections on the stability and instability of the ways in which we organize knowledge and on how far the academic community can and should be involved in the shaping of public policy To mark its centenary in 2002 the British Academy the national academy for the humanities and social sciences organized a programme of lectures on the current state of various disciplines and their future prospects The authors of the eight essays and four commentaries are drawn from Britain Europe and the United States

Cartographies of Culture Damian Walford Davies, 2012-06-15 This pioneering study offers dynamic new answers to Christian Jacob s question What are the links that bind the map to writing Fakes and Forgeries Peter Knight, Jonathan Long, 2004 The possibility that works of art and literature might be forged and that identity might be faked has haunted the cultural imagination for centuries That spectre seems to have returned with a vengeance recently with a series of celebrated hoaxes and scandals ranging from the Alan Sokal hoax article in Social Text to Benjamin Wilkomirski TM s oefake Holocaust memoir But as well as creating anxiety the possibility of oefaking it has now been turned into entertainment Traditionally these activities have been dismissed as dangerous and immoral but more recently some scholars have begun to speculate for example that all forms of national identity rely on forged myths of origin Recent cultural theory has likewise called into question traditional notions of authenticity and originality in both personal identity and in works of art Despite critical pronouncements of the death of the author and the substitution of the simulacrum for the original however making a distinction between the genuine and the fake continues to play a major role in our everyday understanding and evaluation of culture law and politics Consider for example the fiasco surrounding the oeforged Hitler diaries law suits against auction houses for failing to detect forgeries in the art market or the problem of plagiarism at universities It still seems to matter that we can spot the difference especially in the historical moment when we are capable of making copies that are indistinguishable perhaps even better than the original This collection of essays considers the moral aesthetic and political questions that are raised by the long history and current prevalence of fakes and forgeries The international team of contributors consider the issues thrown up by a wide range of examples drawn from fields ranging from literature to art history These case studies include little known subjects such as Eddie Burrup the Australian aboriginal artist who turned out to be an 81 year old white woman as well as new interpretations of familiar cases such as faked holocaust memoirs The strength of the collection is that it brings together not only a wide range of cultural examples of fakes and forgeries from different historical periods but also offers a wide variety of theoretical takes that will form a useful introduction and casebook on this growing field of inquiry Translation and the Arts in Modern France Sonya Stephens, 2017-07-10 Translation and the Arts in Modern France sits at the intersection of transposition translation and ekphrasis finding resonances in these areas across periods places and forms Within these contributions questions of colonization subjugation migration and exile connect Benin to Brittany and political philosophy to the sentimental novel and to film Focusing on cultural production from 1830 to the present and privileging French culture the contributors explore interactions with other cultures countries and continents often explicitly equating intercultural permeability with representational exchange In doing so the book exposes the extent to which moving between media and codes the very process of translation and transposition is a defining aspect of creativity across time space and disciplines Modernism from the Margins Chris Wigginton, 2020-10-01 Modernism from the Margins is an accessible and challenging account of the 1930s writing of two of the most popular authors of the time Locating the work of Louis MacNeice and Dylan Thomas historically the book questions standard accounts of the period as Auden dominated and offers an inclusive and theoretical account of the engagement of both writers with the varieties of Modernism It is the first reading at length of either MacNeice's or Thomas's work in the light of literary theory and one of only a handful of texts to look at the writing of the 1930s in these terms This book is an important contribution to contemporary discussions of both of these writers and of the general issues of modernism postmodernism literary identity and cultural identity it raises The Poetry of Dylan Thomas John Goodby, 2013-07-31 An important reappraisal of the poetry of Dylan Thomas in terms of modern critical theory Whose People? Jasmine Donahaye, 2012-02-15 Wales has a centuries long history of interest in Palestine and Israel and a particularly close interest in Jews and Zionism which has been expressed widely in the literature Whose People Wales Israel Palestine is the first monograph to explore this subject It asks difficult and probing questions about the relationship that Wales has had with Palestine in the past and now has with the Israel Palestine situation in the present and it challenges received wisdom about Welsh tolerance and liberalism Using publications in Welsh and in English across several centuries this survey examines Welsh missionary efforts and colonial desires in Palestine complex and contradictory attitudes to Jews and the use of Zionism and the Hebrew language revival as a model for Wales Beginning with an analysis of a so called tradition of Welsh identification with Jews the study locates its origins in the early twentieth century and moves on to uncover provocative material in Welsh conversionist writing on Jews Muslims and Samaritans in Palestine in the nineteenth century and imaging of Jews in twentieth century fiction and the periodical press It concludes with a survey of Jewish literary responses to Wales that suggests that some Jewish writers have been active agents in reinforcing Welsh support of Zionism in particular The evidence uncovered here shows a complex picture of a unique cultural and political relationship Whose People Wales Israel Palestine makes an important contribution to international Jewish studies to the study of British colonial involvement in Palestine and to Welsh and Jewish literary and cultural history Embodying Identity Harri Garrod Roberts, 2009-07-01 Since the time of Freud some of the most radical innovators within critical theory have stressed the importance of the body and its representation to the constitution of subjectivity This book explores some of the theoretical debates surrounding the body and assesses its value as a critical concept through an analysis of the body's representation both in Welsh literary texts in English and discourse about Wales more generally Combining psychoanalytic with more culturally orientated approaches to the body the book offers an historically informed account of the body that analyses its role in the construction and contestation of identity at a cultural as well as individual level contributing in a new and radical way to the rapidly expanding critical literature concerned with exploring the construction of identity in a Welsh cultural context The Fiction of Emyr Humphreys Linden

Peach,2011-01-15 For over half a century Emyr Humphreys's work as a novelist short story writer poet dramatist and television producer has been extraordinarily impressive This pioneering and stimulating book considers Humphreys's fiction from a range of contemporary critical perspectives and stresses its relevance to the 21st century Drawing on the work of leading modern cultural and literary theorists such as Jacques Derrida and Homi Bhabha psychoanalytic critics such as Melanie Klein and Jacqueline Rose and gender theorists such as Judith Butler Linden Peach brings fresh perspectives to the content structure and developing nature of Humphreys's work employing for example historicist post historicist new geography psychoanalytic and feminist and postfeminist frameworks Through detailed readings which highlight subjects such as gender identity contested masculinities war pacifism strangeness and otherness problematic father and daughter relationships and cultural discourse in complex linguistic environments Peach suggests that Humphreys's work is best understood as dramatic dissident and or dilemma fiction rather than by the term Protestant novelist which Humphreys used to describe himself at the outset of his career Stressing how Humphreys came to see himself as more of a protesting novelist Peach examines how the dilemmas around which his fiction is based originally linked to Humphreys's definition of himself as a protestant writer increasingly become sites in which controversial and often dark themes are explored This approach to Humphreys's work is pursued through exciting readings of some of Humphreys's best and lesser known works including A Man's Estate A Toy Epic Outside the House of Baal the Best of Friends salt of the Earth Unconditional Surrender The Gift of a Daughter Natives Ghosts and Strangers Old people are a Problem The shop and The Woman at the Window

Contemporary Irish and Welsh Women's Fiction Linden Peach,2020-10-01 Presents a comparative study of fiction by late twentieth and twenty first century women writers from Ireland Northern Ireland and Wales This work is of interest to students interested in women's studies gender studies and cultural studies as well as Welsh Irish and Celtic studies

Making the Past Present Paul Robichaud,2007 Robichaud charts the growth of Jones's medievalism from his earliest Pre Raphaelite influences showing how his commitment to modernist aesthetics transformed his vision of the Middle Ages

World Englishes Volumes I-III Set Tometro Hopkins,Kendall Decker,John McKenny,2013-02-14 World Englishes is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive detailed survey of English as it is spoken all over the world The volumes are organised into four groups covering Britain Europe America Africa and Asia and celebrate English in all its diversity The chapters contain maps facts and figures and a detailed description about English as it is spoken in each region and are an invaluable library resource for undergraduates postgraduates and academics interested in the diversity of the English language

Emyr Humphreys Diane Green,2009-07-01 This book explores in detail the novels written by Emyr Humphreys during a timespan of over fifty years from his first A Little Kingdom published in 1946 to The Gift of a Daughter published in 1998 An early chapter comprises a literary biography with the following chapters devoted to the early novels including A Toy Epic a separate examination of Outside the House of Baal considered by many to be his finest achievement his use of Celtic myth as a patterning device similarly his use of Welsh history is covered in 2 chapters and finally his use of various postcolonial strategies It also contains an extensive bibliography of work by and about Emyr Humphreys

Compatriots or Competitors? Hywel Dix,2022-11-15 Rather than being limited to political or legal discussion like most books on Brexit this book explores the relationship between cultural production and Brexit both in the lead up to it and in its aftermath It is the first major study to take a comparative approach to analysing the relationship between cultural production and Brexit in all 4 nations of the UK This comparative approach is necessary to get a detailed picture of the complex dynamics at work across each This book is highly interdisciplinary in nature looking at the rise of the cultural industries the relationship between the UK City of Culture festival and its fore runner the European Capital of Culture national book prizes in Britain and Europe British variations on Nordic Noir TV and the Brexit novel As a result it draws on research in the disciplines of geography economics film and television studies history and politics as well as publishing and literary studies

Disability, the Environment, and Colonialism Tatiana Konrad,2024-08-02 Aligning discourses surrounding hegemonic colonial visions of the environment and disability this volume illustrates the ways in which colonial understandings of disability were and continue to be defined by relationships with the environment collectively creating a form of eco ableism that continues to this day

Postcolonial Brittany Heather Williams,2007 This book investigates the space between the two languages of modern day Brittany through a series of close readings of literary texts that represent Brittany or Bretonness in the French language This is the space that is negotiated by translation be it a smooth translation of Breton scenes and themes into a French fit for the salons of the capital or a foreignizing translation of Breton motifs into a French that writhes and struggles to accommodate them It is also the space negotiated by the bilingual author who writes in the shadow of the other language the literary conventions of one may litter his work in the other or the idioms and syntax of one may make their ghostly presence felt in the other But it can equally be a space of violence as in the case of the writer whose whole community has lost its mother tongue and writes under protest in the language of the cultural oppressor or colonizer As the first sustained analysis of the literature produced between French and Breton this book shows us how literary language is affected by such intercultural tensions and also what it can mean to be caught between cultures

Italians in Wales and their Cultural

Representations, 1920s-2010s Bruna Chezzi, 2015-11-25 Italian immigrants began to settle in Wales at the turn of the 19th century opening hundreds of coffee shops particularly in the South Wales Valleys Despite this such immigrants remain a largely unexplored case study in the history of Italian immigration to the UK This book uses a variety of unexplored sources and engages with the broader academic debate on migration identity and the trans generational transmission of memory to describe the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives and the formation of a distinctive yet complex Welsh Italian identity It follows a chronological journey moving from the interwar period a time in which Italians in Wales were generally regarded as fully established and integrated through to the Second World War a time when Italian identity became problematic and resulted in nearly seventy years of silencing up until the first decade of the 21st century where a mixture of commemorative events and cultural initiatives prompted the emergence of Welsh Italian narratives The book begins by studying photographic representations of Italians in Wales during the interwar period using photographs available in local history books private collections and history books The analysis of the photographic material draws from the work of scholars such as Sontag Noble Hirsh and Bate on photo textual analysis to show how photographs can reveal understudied yet important aspects of Italian migrant identity and of the relationship with the host community in the period that preceded the Second World War The book then examines how the events of the Second World War destabilised the images of family sociability and integration suggested by these photographs and how such events aggravated tensions between host and migrant cultures It continues by investigating recent Welsh Italian texts where in revisiting the past and the experience of their ancestors the authors bring different circumstances and personal factors into play determining the degree to which they reconcile their dual identity It concludes with a comparison between these narratives of belonging and the representation of the Italian migrant experience in Anglo Welsh literature

Queer Wales Huw Osborne, 2016-06-20 The relationship between nation and queer sexuality has long been a fraught one for the sustaining myths of the former are often at odds with the needs of the latter This collection of essays introduces readers to important historical and cultural figures and moments in queer life and it addresses some of the urgent questions of queer belonging that face Wales today

Framing and Imagining Disease in Cultural History G. Rousseau, M. Gill, D. Haycock, M. Herwig, 2003-07-03 Throughout human history illness has been socially interpreted before its range of meanings could be understood and disseminated Writers of diverse types have been as active in constructing these meanings as doctors yet it is only recently that literary traditions have been recognized as a rich archive for these interpretations These essays focus on the methodological hurdles encountered in retrieving these interpretations called framing by the authors Framing and Imagining Disease in Cultural History aims to explain what has been said about these interpretations and to compare their value
