Aiello,2014-05-01 This publication is the follow up to the highly acclaimed book eVolo Skyscrapers 150 new skyscrapers submitted to the eVolo Skyscraper Competition are categorized and examined These super tall structures take into consideration the advances in technology the exploration of sustainable systems and the establishment of new urban and architectural methods to solve economic social and cultural problems of the contemporary city including the scarcity of natural resources and infrastructure and the exponential increase of inhabitants pollution economic division and unplanned urban sprawl Using the Engineering Literature Bonnie A. Osif,2006-08-23 The field of engineering is becoming increasingly interdisciplinary and there is an ever growing need for engineers to investigate engineering and scientific resources outside their own area of expertise However studies have shown that quality information finding skills often tend to be lacking in the engineering profession Using the Engineerin Building Faith Robert E. Brenneman,Brian Jonathan Miller,2020 The social sciences have largely ignored the role of physical buildings in shaping the social fabric of communities and groups Although the emerging field of the sociology of architecture has started to pay attention to physical structures Brenneman and Miller are the first to combine the light of sociological theory and the empirical method in order to understand the impact of physical structures on the religious groups that build transform and maintain them Building Faith explores the social impact of religious buildings in places as diverse as a Chicago suburb and a Guatemalan indigenous Mayan village all the while asking the questions How does space shape community and How do communities shape the spaces that speak for them Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D.,Elizabeth S. Aversa,Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth,Cynthia J. Miller,Cynthia F. Miller,2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources enables librarians teachers and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs Authoritative trusted and timely Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Sixth Edition introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed This new version of a classic resource the first update in over a decade has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users librarians in academic public school and special library settings researchers in religion philosophy literature and the performing and visual arts graduate students in library and information science and teachers and students in humanities the arts and interdisciplinary degree programs Sketching User Experiences: Getting the Design Right and the Right Design Bill Buxton,2010-07-28 Sketching User Experiences approaches design and design thinking as something distinct that needs to be better understood by both designers and the people with whom they need to work in order to achieve success with new products and systems So while the focus is on design the approach is holistic Hence the book speaks to designers usability specialists the HCI community product managers and business executives There is an emphasis on balancing the back end concern with usability and engineering excellence getting the design right with an up front investment in sketching and ideation getting the right design Overall the objective is to build the notion of informed design molding emerging technology into a form that serves our society and reflects its values Grounded in both practice and scientific research Bill Buxton s engaging work aims to spark the imagination while encouraging the use of new techniques breathing new life into user experience design Covers sketching and early prototyping design methods suitable for dynamic product capabilities cell phones that communicate with each other and other embedded systems smart appliances and things you only imagine in your dreams Thorough coverage of the design sketching method which helps easily build experience prototypes without the effort of engineering prototypes which are difficult to abandon Reaches out to a range of designers including user interface designers industrial designers software engineers usability engineers product managers and others Full of case studies examples exercises and projects and access to video clips that demonstrate the principles and methods

Teletechnologies, Place, and Community Rowan Wilken, 2014-02-07 Teletechnologies or technologies of distance cannot be ignored Indeed the present electronic age is said to have wrought profound changes to how we think about and experience who we are where we are and how we relate with one another Place and community have traditionally formed key concepts for thinking about these issues but what relevance do these concepts now hold for us In this wide ranging study Wilken re evaluates how ideas of place and community intersect with and help us make sense of a world transformed by information and communication technologies This interdisciplinary investigation ranges across diverse textual and contextual terrain exploring approaches from media and communications architectural history and theory philosophy sociology geography literature and urban design The rich analysis of these myriad texts reveals the complex and at times contradictory ways in which notions of place and community circulate in relation to these technologies of distance Wilken s examination underscores both the enduring importance of ideas of place and community in the present age and the urgent need to continue to engage with think about and reconfigure these twin ideas
