Alternative Australia Communities Of The Future:

Urban Eco-Communities in Australia Liam Cooper, Hans A. Baer, 2018-06-28 This book offers one of the first detailed anthropological studies of emergent ecotopianism in urban contexts Engaging directly with debates on urbanisation sustainability and utopia it presents two detailed ethnographic case studies of inner urban Australian eco communities in Adelaide and Melbourne These novel responses to the ecological crisis real social laboratories that attempt to manifest a vision of the eco city in microcosm offer substantial new insights into the concept and creation of sustainable urban communities their attempts to cultivate ways of living that are socially and ecologically nourishing and their often fraught relationship to the capitalist city beyond These studies also suggest the opportunities and limitations of moving beyond demonstration projects towards wider urban transformation as well as exposing the problems of accessibility and affordability that thwart further urban eco interventions and the ways that existing projects can exacerbate issues of gentrification and privilege in a socially polarised city Amidst the challenges of the capitalist city climate change and ecological crisis this book offers vital lessons on the potential of urban sustainability in future cities Encyclopedia of Community DAVID LEVINSON, KAREN CHRISTENSEN, 2003-06-30 Click Additional Materials for downloadable materials and samples Incredibly this is the first encyclopedia to focus on community as concept and experience so stands alone in its field as the one title any library must buy to cover this topic Essential for all readerships CHOICEA timely comprehensive and very welcome overview of a rich and rapidly growing field of inquiry Robert D Putnam Professor at Harvard University and author of Bowling Alone With every passing minute it becomes more and more apparent that our world is one community The Encyclopedia of Community serves as recognition of this trend and as a needed resource The four volume set not only explains the emerging buzz words of community such as social capital or civic engagement but also tells many stories of community institutions that work such as public libraries Sarah Ann Long Past President 1999 2000 American Library Association As we yearn to connect with our fellow citizens during these uncertain times we have a unique moment to encourage greater participation in our democracy and reinvigorate our communities The Encyclopedia of Community provides a timely diverse array of theories and practices that will help citizens understand the value of engaging together to make the critical choices that enrich the way we live learn work and govern in our local communities The Encyclopedia deserves a prime spot in the libraries homes and offices of all communities that want to invest in a brighter future for their residents and their children Nancy Kranich Past President of the American Library Association whose presidential theme was Libraries The Cornerstone of Democracy 2000 2001 American politicians often pair the word community with the word freedom to describe our basic values Yet though used constantly the word community is defined in widely different and contested ways Most people like the idea of community but some intellectuals worry that it might imply collectivism The great value of this new Encyclopedia is that it gives readers a chance to sample the many uses of the term and gain clarity about the issues at stake It is a major contribution to a more coherent understanding of this fundamental idea Robert Bellah Professor of Sociology Emeritus University of California Berkeley and co author of Habits of the Heart SAGE Publications is proud to announce the Encyclopedia of Community a major reference work that summarizes the many fascinating and important concepts of a global topic Community itself is a concept an experience and a central part of being human Whether the reader is a student researcher or professional in the field of psychology sociology or even economics this three volume work will provide the necessary definitions of community beyond traditional views Arranged in an A to Z fashion the Encyclopedia can also be viewed topically via a Reader s Guide This allows for interdisciplinary compare and contrast among topics such as types of communities social capital technology urban life politics and law community design and global studies Edited by the award winning team at Berkshire Reference and assisted by an editorial board of world renowned scholars the Encyclopedia of Community will prove to be one of the most widely used reference works in your collection Key Features 500 signed articles 3 volumes 2000 pages Reader s Guide Master bibliography 250 sidebars Appendices Resource Guides Master Bibliography Libraries Build Community Libraries and Popular Culture Utopias and Utopians Richard C.S.

Trahair,2013-10-31 Utopian ventures are worth close attention to help us understand why some succeed and others fail for they offer hope for an improved life on earth Utopias and Utopians is a comprehensive guide to utopian communities and their founders Some works look at literary utopias or political utopias etc and others examine the utopias of only one country this work examines utopias from antiquity to the present and surveys utopian efforts around the world Of more than 600 alphabetically arranged entries roughly half are descriptions of utopian ventures the other half are biographies of those who were involved Entries are followed by a list of sources and a general bibliography concludes the volume Green Harvest

Rebecca Jones,2010-09-03 Green Harvest explores the ideas and practices that have shaped organic farming and gardening in Australia from the interwar years to the present day It reveals that Australian organic farming and gardening societies were amongst the first in the world being active as early as the 1940s In what way does human health depend upon the natural environment Green Harvest traces this idea through four themes of Australian organic farming and gardening soil chemical free ecological well being and back to the land each illustrated with a case study profiling an Australian organic farmer or gardener Personalities in Australian organic gardening such as Jackie French and Peter Bennett talk about organic growing The book also features extracts from early organic magazines and interviews with current organic growers including banana and macadamia farmers managers of outback sheep stations dairy farmers and self sufficiency gardeners All of these tell the story of Australian organic farming and gardening past present and future Alternative Australia Peter

Cock,1979 Vietnam and the new left First urban communities Rural communities Bourgeois co operatives The philosophy of alternatives New Voices, New Visions Catriona Elder,Keith Moore,2012-03-15 New Voices New Visions brings together a collection of papers that engage with the ideas of nation identity and place The title New Voices New Visions harks back to earlier scholarship that endeavoured to explore these issues It therefore makes links between old and new stories of Australian identity tracing the continuities shifts and changes in how Australia is imagined The collection is deliberately interdisciplinary gathering work by historians literary and film scholars communication and cultural theorists political scientists and sociologists This mixed perspectives enables the reader to trace ideas concepts and theories across a range of disciplines and understand the distinctive ways in which different disciplines engage with ideas of nation space and Australian identity The book is written in an engaging and accessible manner making it an excellent text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Australian Studies It will be especially useful for the growing number of students living outside Australia who engage with Australian literature and culture The book provides a range of topics that introduces students to key issues and concepts It also situates these ideas in historical context New Voices New Visions engages with key contemporary issues in everyday Australian life environment and climate change immigration consumerism travel and cities It explores these various topics by considering case studies both contemporary and historical For example the issue of attitudes to Asia are analysed through art the topic of national symbols through the case of the crocodile approaches to immigration via a popular reality television programme The contributors to this book comprise some of the foremost Australian scholars as well as emerging scholars This combination ensures a depth of knowledge but also a vibrancy The editors are experienced scholars whose knowledge of the field is broad and they have brought a coherence to the material ensuring a strong narrative for the reader

Musical Scenes and Social Class Romain Garbaye, G r me Guibert, 2024-07-15 Early analysts of both punk and metal have shown their continuing popularity for segments of the public who were often considered in the 1970s and 1980s as losers of globalization despite the level of fragmentation of these scenes the diversity of their audiences backgrounds and their constant evolution and re invention This volume aims to stimulate and contribute to debates on social class and economic and cultural change on one side and punk and metal on the other through international contemporary and historical approaches mainly focused on Britain and France

Australia's Unintended Cities Richard Tomlinson, 2012-11-23 Australia's Unintended Cities identifies and researches housing and housing related urban outcomes that are unintended consequences of other policies the structure of incentives and disincentives for the housing market and governance arrangements for metropolitan areas and planning and service delivery It is argued that unintended consequences have a greater impact on the housing market and Australia's cities and their future than policies directly concerned with housing urban policy and metropolitan strategic planning The book will inform policy makers including government officials consultants and politicians It will also be used by academics and students in various areas of urban policy such as housing and urban planning as well as environment public policy and economics APAIS 1999: Australian public affairs information service, The Australian Metropolis Stephen Hamnett, Robert Freestone, 2000 The Australian Metropolis splendidly fills a huge gap in the literature on Australian cities It is the definitive account of the history of Australian cities and the crucial role which planning has played in their genesis and growth Spanning two centuries from the very beginning until the present day it will instantly become a standard work Professor Sir Peter Hall author of Cities in Civilisation The Australian Metropolis provides a single volume introduction to the development of urban planning It fills the need for a convenient initial resource for anyone interested in the broad evolutionary sweep of modern planning By setting the evolution of Australian planning within its broader societal context The Australian Metropolis presents a balanced appraisal of the positive negative and ambivalent legacies resulting from attempts to plan Australia's major cities This book is the winner of two Royal Australian Planning Institute Awards for Planning Excellence in 2000 2001 including the New South Wales Division Prize for Planning Scholarship in February 2001

Australia I. Kepars, 1984 Annotated bibliography of 960 entries covering all aspects of Australia includes Australian Aborigines pp 154 160 The Routledge Handbook on Greening High-Density Cities Peng Du, Kheir Al-Kodmany, Mir M. Ali, 2024-06-17 This new handbook provides a platform to bring together multidisciplinary researchers focusing on greening high density agglomerations from three perspectives climate change social implications and people's health Written by leading scholars and experts the chapters aim to summarize the state of the art and produce a reference book for policymakers practitioners academics and researchers to study design and build high density cities by integrating green spaces The topics covered in the book include but are not limited to Urban Heat Island Green Space and Carbon Sequestration Green Space and Social Equity Green Space and Public Health Biophilic Cities Urban Agriculture Vertical Farms Urban Farming Technologies Nature and Biodiversity Nature and Health Biophilic Design Green Infrastructure Urban Revitalization Post Covid Cities Smart and Resilient Cities Tall Buildings and Sustainable Vertical Cities Transitions Peter W Newton, 2008-06-27 Formidable challenges confront Australia and its human settlements the mega metro regions major and provincial cities coastal rural and remote towns The key drivers of change and major urban vulnerabilities have been identified and principal among them are resource constraints such as oil water food skilled labour and materials and carbon constraints linked to climate change and a need to transition to renewable energy both of which will strongly shape urban development this century Transitions identifies 21st century challenges to the resilience of Australia's cities and regions that flow from a range of global and local influences and offers a portfolio of solutions to these critical problems and vulnerabilities The solutions will require fundamental transitions in many instances to our urban infrastructures to our institutions and how they plan for the future and perhaps most of all to ourselves in terms of our lifestyles and consumption patterns With contributions from 92 researchers all leaders in their respective fields this book offers the expertise to chart pathways for a sustainability transition     HUD Challenge ,1976     Australian Books in Print ,1985

Community-Owned Transport Leigh Glover,2016-11-03 City and state governments around the world are struggling to achieve environmentally sustainable transport Economic technological city and transport planning and human behaviour solutions are often hampered by ineffective implementation So attention is now turning to institutional governmental and political barriers Approaches to these implementation problems assume that transport ownership can only be public owned by state entities or private corporate or personal Another option largely unexplored to date is communal ownership of transport Community Owned Transport proposes and develops the notion that communal ownership has a historical basis and provides unique opportunities for providing personal mobility It looks at the historical roots of modern urban transport s failings as those of technological change and the associated governing of transport systems particularly the role of public sector institutions Community ownership is explored through the new sharing economy developments car sharing ridesharing and bicycle share schemes and older social innovations in ecovillages and communal living Models and practices of community ownership of transport are provided and this study also discusses how community ownership might contribute to sustainable transport Drawing widely on different disciplines and fields of scholarship this book explores the conceptual and practical aspects of communal ownership of transport It will be a valuable resource for those seeking innovative approaches to addressing the pressing problems of transport including graduate and postgraduate students as well as policymakers practitioners and community groups     Australian Cities Patrick Troy,1995-09-14 An incisive 1995 exploration of urban planning and policy and the problems facing urban Australia in the 1990s     Future Cities Making Niki Frantzeskaki,Magnus Moglia,Peter Newton,Deo Prasad,Melissa Pineda Pinto,2024-12-26 This open access book describes the complex dynamics that coevolve in cities and from cities to inform agendas for urban research and urban policy with a view to future city missions It provides a suite of research informed chapters on urban pathways that are early signals and visions for how future cities can be shaped and transformed as well as chapters from policy industry and intermediary organization actors that relate and respond to these pathways from a mainstreaming and implementation perspective This edited collection intends to trigger and capture an ambitious transformative agenda amongst researchers and practitioners who have as their mission to shape urban futures While there is proliferating literature on cities urbanism and urban governance this book offers a unique selling point implying a research positioning point to the field of sustainability transitions by intersecting research on urban sustainability transitions and missions oriented research The focus on the nexus of game changers pathways and innovations sets the book firmly in the leading edge of urban transitions research The book engages with a breadth of disciplines including sustainability science urban planning urban design mobility energy climate change science urban ecology urban sociology architecture data science sustainability transitions studies policy analysis and policy studies as well as environmental governance As an output it aims to engage with and inspire future research and teaching education in the fields of architecture and urban planning urban design environmental governance sustainability science innovation studies and urban sociology      APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service ,
