Theologies of

Creation in Early Judaism and Ancient Christianity Tobias Nicklas,Korinna Zamfir,Heike Braun,2010 As environmental destruction begins to seriously affect humans it has become increasingly relevant to reflect on the essential elements of the Jewish and Christian theologies of creation The essays in this volume explore key aspects of creation theology which poses the question of the origin of the world and of man Creation theology is rooted in the concept of man who owes his existence to God and who is placed in a cosmos which God created as good At the same time the essays show that even back in antiquity the creation discussion held high potential for ideological criticism

Allgemeine Weltgeschichte von der Schöpfung an bis auf gegenwärtige Zeit ,1789 Apelles und Hermogenes Katharina Greschat, 2015-12-22 This volume deals with the intellectual and social context of two Christian teachers living in the second half of the second century It presents a coherent reconstruction and interpretation of their teaching often considered to be marginal within the development of early Christian doctrine The first part of the book seeks to understand the Marcionite Apelles as a cultured person who shaped his understanding of Christian doctrine in the context of the philosophical background and in permanent discussion with other Christian schools In this respect Apelles coincides with the Christian Platonist Hermogenes His opinions are described in the second part of the book The author points out that teachers like Apelles and Hermogenes had to answer the questions of the educated in order to defend and to define their
