such films as Jumanji and Dragonheart and Star Wars Episode One 0 7432 2500 7 29 95 Simon Schuster LINK Lucella Campbell,2017-09-01 The story is about an adventuresome non physical being Link who rediscovers Earth and the concept of the physical during his explorations of other worlds He gets fascinated with Earth and makes regular visits to this planet bringing back much information to his realm Altura But because he is formless he can observe but cannot truly experience what it is to be physical He wants to have this experience Over time that desire grows in him and eventually he chooses to trade his non physical state to become instead human And so the book starts with Link finding himself under a tree on Earth as he slowly discovers his physical condition He is stunned by the fact that he cannot easily penetrate the tree and moreso that he cannot consciously access the wider realm of thought and is instead stuck in an individualized body which is seemingly prone to constantly shifting emotions controlled by a pendulum that swings between love and a sense of well being on the one hand and fear on the other Dax comes upon Link in this state of self discovery as he is in the process of learning to move his limbs Dax is a young 12 year old boy who is the village favorite He is very curious and lovable and often wanders out to the forested area beyond the village to rediscover nature This is where he meets Link the new human naked They engage in conversation and Link unfolds knowledge about creation different life forms in the universe physical and non physical how physicality came to be and the essential role of death in returning us to the realm of spirit and the possible option of choosing not to return to the turmoil of the physical existence all very new and enthralling for Dax and maybe for the reader The rest of the book is about Link's experience and observations of the human condition He learns about how central greed competition and dominance is to the human way of being as he outmanoeuvres Wall St and is asked to leave He learns about mistrust as he loses another job because he far outperforms his peers and is considered a freak He learns about the driving attraction between the genders when he meets Ria Through his final job as a social worker he goes on to learn much more about the highs and lows of being human and how best to help those who are more ready to move on to a higher level of being and understanding He recognizes that all life struggles are a misplaced attempt to connect to something higher and to find the wholeness we have lost when we unknowingly chose identification with form over spirit We are all on a journey into our wholeness In all of this Link has as his grounding Granma Hale Dax's grandmother who is always there to give him a listening ear learn from his constant unfoldings and facilitate his adjustment to Earth It was she for instance who brought together some key people in the village to a discussion at her house to build acceptance of this strange boy from another realm who suddenly finds himself here It was she too who found him his jobs Toward the end of the book she passes away peacefully enjoying the beautiful sunset which both herself and Link loved so much and which occurs often in the book The story ends with a poem which attempts to trigger in us the freedom to experience what we are at our core and create that LINK The Primal of Blood and Bone Jennifer L. Armentrout,2025-09-23 In the shadows and flames Primals will fall And from the blood and ash new gods will rise What was dreamt Poppy was never meant to awaken and the consequences are devastating and far reaching stirring ancient powers from their slumber and transforming Casteel and Kieran in ways even the Fates couldn't have foreseen But what that means is the least of their concerns For now What was foreseen The Blood Crown has fallen but what has risen is a far greater danger than they've ever faced From flesh and fire the Great Conspirator has returned to the mortal realm and he wants only one thing They must stop the true Primal of Death before he regains his strength and it won't be easy Even weakened his influence is undeniable His power unthinkable Has come to be While the future of the realms rests upon them they won't stand alone The gods have awakened each harboring their own blood soaked secrets But they must navigate an unbalanced realm where every choice past and present has the potential to not only undo everything they've fought for but also destroy the very bonds that have joined them together For the Harbinger and the Bringer of Death and Destruction has risen

Soyala's Saga Richard Donahue, 2015-03-31 Author House Review The Sixth Coming is set within an original mythology to fascinating results It combines vividly realized characters with spiritual themes and elements of Aztec lore There is an incredible array of exciting sequences that could provide great material for adapting this work into another medium Due to the nontraditional structure and storytelling style live theater could be an interesting option Film is another option perhaps animation could make the most of the impressive locations creatures and spectacles There are several elements that are very well suited for a film or theater piece Because both these mediums usually feature the interactions between characters the strong personalities of The Sixth Coming are essential to capture Soyala is a great heroine from her borderline petulance over the Builders gift to her reluctant and confused acceptance of her destiny She isn't perfect which makes her all the more compelling as she overcomes overwhelming odds Kajika Burilgi and the Minstrel are wonderful supporting characters Each of these brothers has his own distinct personality and their squabbling provides comic relief Burilgi and the Minstrel in particular provide humor Kajika could bring in sex appeal for female audiences while Soyala and Xochiquetzal could do so for males Xochiquetzal Tona teotl is a fascinating villain Her sinister sexuality when welcoming Soyala and Kajika could play very well in a film The later scenes on the Barge are thrilling due to Tona teotl's increasingly evident madness These scenes would provide terrific moments for an actor to really chew up the scenery God's Beauty Patrick T. McCormick, 2012

What if we began our study of Christian ethics not with an examination of our moral duties but with an exploration of the call of beauty For like justice beauty generates a call to a larger more generous self In God's Beauty Patrick McCormick asks How does the beauty of the righteous community manifest the glory of God How can we imitate and improve this beauty by reforming our own societies What fundamental need and right do all of us especially the poor have to experience and create beauty in our lives and communities Why is it also essential to our own humanity that we recognize and treasure the beauty of the stranger alien and foe and resist every effort to render these unrecognized neighbors ugly McCormick offers a fresh positive approach to moral arguments calling us to work for social justice Instead of laying out the evils of failing to work for justice protect human rights overcome alienation and hostility or tend to the earth God's Beauty focuses on the calling of divine beauty summoning us to be tenders and creators of beauty Rain on a Strange Roof Jan Whitt, 2012-03-22
