Bonfire Of Creeds The Essential Ashis Nandy:

Bonfire of Creeds Ashis Nandy, 2010 Empire, Nationalism and the Postcolonial World Michael

Collins, 2013-03-01 By presenting a new interpretation of Rabindranath Tagore's English language writings this book places the work of India's greatest Nobel Prize winner and cultural icon in the context of imperial history and thereby bridges the gap between Tagore studies and imperial postcolonial historiography Using detailed archival research the book charts the origins of Tagore's ideas in Indian religious traditions and discusses the impact of early Indian nationalism on Tagore's thinking It offers a new interpretation of Tagore's complex debates with Gandhi about the colonial encounter Tagore's provocative analysis of the impact of British imperialism in India and his questioning of nationalism as a pathway to authentic postcolonial freedom The book also demonstrates how the man and his ideas were received and interpreted in Britain during his lifetime and how they have been sometimes misrepresented by nationalist historians and postcolonial theorists after Tagore's death An alternative interpretation based on an intellectual history approach this book places Tagore's sense of agency his ideas and intentions within a broader historical framework Offering an exciting critique of postcolonial theory from a historical perspective it is a timely contribution in the wake of the 150th anniversary of Tagore's birth in 2011

Narratives of Gendered Dissent in South Asian Cinemas Alka Kurian, 2012 This book conducts a post colonial gendered investigation of women centred South Asian films In these films the narrative becomes an act of political engagement and a site of feminist struggle a map that weaves together multiple strands of subjectivity gender caste race class religion and colonialism The book explores the cinematic construction of an oppositional narrative of feminist dissent with a view to elaborate a historical understanding and theorisation of the materiality and politics of the everyday struggle of Indian women The book analyzes the ways that cultural workers have tended to use subversive narratives as a tool of resistance Narratives that are political ideological classed raced and gendered offer the focus of this exploration Through strategies of disclosure and documentation of memory personal experiences and imaginary events shaped by the larger historical political and cultural contexts these discursive texts engage in the processes of struggle against a plethora of oppression caste class religion patriarchal sexual and neo colonial The study looks at the manner in which through their creative and aesthetic interventions South Asian film makers enable the articulation of an alternative gendered subjectivity as well as constitute the ground for personal and collective empowerment Films discussed include Shyam Benegal's Nishaant Nandita Das Firaag Beate Arnestad's My Daughter the Terrorist and Sarah Gavron's Brick Lane Land and Literature in a Cosmopolitan

Age Vincent P. Pecora, 2020 This volume focuses on the idea of vital geographies in literature from 1871 to 1945 Studying works by writers such as George Eliot Hardy Conrad Lawrence Forster Woolf and T S Eliot the volume explores the relationship between literature and the land The Vulnerable Subject A. Beattie, K. Schick, 2012-11-27 This book develops a concept of vulnerability in International Relations that allows for a profound rethinking of a core concept of international politics means ends rationality It explores traditions that proffer a more complex and relational account of vulnerability

Practical Spirituality and Human Development Ananta Kumar Giri, 2018-09-28 This book explores varieties of spiritual movements and alternative experiments for generation of beauty dignity and dialogues in a world where the rise of the religious in politics and the public sphere is often accompanied by violence It examines how spirituality can contribute to human development social transformations and planetary realizations urging us to treat each other and our planet with evolutionary care and respect Trans disciplinary and trans paradigmatic to its very core this text opens new pathways of practical spirituality and humanistic action for both scholarship and discourse and offers an invaluable companion for scholars across religious studies cultural studies and development studies

Confronting Secularism in Europe and India Brian Black, Gavin Hyman, Graham M. Smith, 2014-06-19 Can secularism continue to provide a foundation for political legitimacy It is often claimed that one of the cultural achievements of the West has been its establishment of secular democracy wherein religious belief is respected but confined to the sphere of private belief In more recent times however political secularism has been increasingly called into question Religious believers in numerous traditions have protested against the distortion and confinement that secularism imposes on their faith Others have become uneasily aware of the way in which secularism no longer commands universal assent in the way it once did Confronting Secularism in Europe and India adds to this debate by staging a creative encounter between European and Indian conceptions of secularism with a view to continuing new and distinctive trajectories of thought about the place and role of secularism in contemporary times Looking at political secularism the relationship between secularism and religion and religious and secular violence this book considers whether there are viable alternatives to secularism in Europe and in India

Moral Issues in Global Perspective - Volume 2: Human Diversity and Equality - Second Edition Christine Koggel, 2006-03-27 Now available in three thematic volumes the second edition of Moral Issues in Global Perspective is a collection of the newest and best articles on current moral issues by moral and political theorists from around the globe Each volume seeks to challenge the standard approaches to morality and moral issues shaped by Western liberal theory and to extend the inquiry beyond the context of North America Covering a broad range of issues and arguments this collection includes critiques of traditional liberal accounts of rights justice and moral values while raising questions about the treatment of disadvantaged groups within and across societies affected by globalization Providing new perspectives on issues such as war and terrorism reproduction euthanasia censorship and the environment each volume of Moral Issues in Global Perspective incorporates work by race class feminist and disability theorists Human Diversity and Equality the second of the three volumes examines issues of equality and difference and the effects within and across borders of kinds of discrimination on the basis of race ethnicity gender disability class and sexual orientation Nine essays are new four of which were written especially for this volume Moral Issues in Global Perspective is available in three separate volumes Moral and Political Theory Human Diversity and

Equality and Moral Issues Memory, Nationalism, and Narrative in Contemporary South Asia J. Edward Mallot, 2012-09-25 This book investigates the ambivalent responses to the opposing compulsions of memory and forgetting in cultural production in South Asia Mallot reveals how writers such as Salman Rushdie Michael Ondaatje and Amitav Ghosh indict nationalism's sins by accessing and encoding the past Sociological Perspectives on Globalisation Ajaya Kumar Sahoo, 2006 The work deals with an interesting collection of essays by specialists scholars on different aspects of sociological perspectives on globalization These essays thirteen in number discuss all relevant aspects of globalization at national and international level The book will be of immense academic value to sociologists social anthropologists politics cultural and ethnic studies and transnational studies The Postcolonial Short Story Maggie Awadalla, Paul March-Russell, 2012-10-23 This book puts the short story at the heart of contemporary postcolonial studies and questions what postcolonial literary criticism may be Focusing on short fiction between 1975 and today the period in which critical theory came to determine postcolonial studies it argues for a sophisticated critique exemplified by the ambiguity of the form Reading Postcolonial Theory Bibhash Choudhury, 2016-02-26 This book is an essential introduction to significant texts in postcolonial theory It looks at seminal works in the moments of their making and delineates the different threads that bind postcolonial studies Each chapter presents a comprehensive discussion of a major text and contextualises it in the wake of contemporary themes and debates The volume Studies major texts by foremost scholars Edward W Said Chinua Achebe Albert Memmi Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Paul Carter Homi Bhabha Frantz Fanon Ashis Nandy Robert J C Young Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o and Sara Suleri Shifts focus from colonial experience to underlying principles of critical engagement Uses accessible jargon free language Focused engaging and critically insightful this book will be indispensable to students and scholars of literary and cultural studies comparative literature and postcolonial studies Ethics, Distance, and Accountability Shomik Dasgupta, 2021-10-22 Rammohun Roy c 1772 1833 is counted amongst the most influential intellectuals of Modern India But even after a century of debate and enquiry scholars are still not quite sure whether he was a consistent and articulate political thinker or a man of intellectual compromise and paradox This book argues that Rammohun was a consistent thinker who creatively responded to the political challenges of the East India Company's government in India by reading deeply into Sanskrit and Indo Persian intellectual traditions to develop a political thought of his own Rammohun's political thought was concerned with three distinct but related themes i the restructuring of the East India Company's administration from a distant and invisible government at London to Calcutta ii the importance of ethical practice in Bengali society and iii the legal and ethical obligation of the Company to be accountable to its subjects Rammohun consistently stressed the importance of societal ethics and highlighted the consequences of the distance between London and Bengal on governmental accountability A unity of thought can thus be identified in his work From International Relations to Relations International Philip Darby, 2015-12-22 This book brings postcolonial critique directly to bear on established ways of theorizing international relations Its primary concern is with the non European world and its relations with the North In advancing an alternative conception of relations international the book draws on alternative source material and different forms of writing It also features short stories an interview and explores the role of poetics and performance The suzerainty of the disciplinary writ is challenged on three primary grounds Firstly on its Eurocentrism which leads the discipline to pass lightly over the distinctive life experiences of most of the world s people Secondly on the discipline s failure to engage in any systematic way with other bodies of knowledge about the international as for example international political economy postcolonialism and development Lastly it confronts the top down nature of the politics of the discipline and that seldom addresses everyday life From squatter towns to the evasions of the poor from law through to literature this work raises a number of problems for International relations It challenges a colonial mindset de centres the west and opens the field to new approaches that are far more interdisciplinary than international relations generally allows It is a provocative contribution for students and scholars of IR and Postcolonial studies alike

Imagined Identities Gönül Pultar, 2014-04-14
How are identities being forged during the age of globalization This collection of essays by scholars from various disciplines and regions of the world discusses both the construction and deconstruction of identity in its engagement with culture ethnicity and nationhood The authors explore the tension resulting from the desire to create a new cultural space for identities that are at once national regional linguistic and religious Among the wide ranging approaches Tanja Stampfl looks at the elusiveness of cultural identity in Khaled Hosseini s The Kite Runner Dawn Morais investigates issues of ethnicity and nationality in Malaysia s tourism advertising and Cathy Waegner explores ethnic identities as globalized market commodities Throughout the volume identity is approached from a variety of sites fiction news analysis film theme parks and field work to contribute new insight and perspective to the well worn debate over what identity signifies in societies where the existence of minorities both indigenous and immigrant challenges the dominant group

Psychology in India Braj Bhushan, 2025-06-12
This volume presents the life and work of 62 prominent Indian psychologists with each chapter illustrating their life and work The nature and framework of each chapter is uniform encompassing a brief biography of the psychologists their affiliations with various institutions and most prominently their contributions to the field of psychology The major highlight of the book is the collection of work of Indian scholars recorded in the form of research articles book chapters and books some of which were even used to develop models by Western scholars but never received their due credit The research activities conducted at universities and institutions have been the backbone of scientific progress and they are also highlighted here especially the contributions of the Research Designs and Standards Organisation RDSO Lucknow Defence Institute of Psychological Research DIPR Delhi and Institute of Banking Personnel Selection IBPS Mumbai This is the first book of this kind that chronologically presents the life and work of

Indian psychologists It will be useful to students of Psychology Behavioural Sciences Sociology and Social Work It will also be an invaluable reference text for those working on the history of psychology The Book Review ,2004 Modernist Literature and Postcolonial Studies Rajeev S. Patke,2013-05-20 Provides a fresh account of modernist writing in a perspective based on the reading strategies developed by postcolonial studies Neither modernity nor colonialism and likewise neither postmodernity nor postcoloniality can be properly understood without recognition of their intertwined development This book interprets modernity as an asymmetrically global phenomenon complexly connected to the course of Western imperialism and demonstrates how the impact of Western modernism produced new developments in writing from all the former colonies of Europe and the US These developments constitute the afterlife of Western modernism The various ways in which the aesthetic ideologies and writing strategies of Western modernism have been adapted transposed and modified by some of the most innovative writers of the twentieth century is demonstrated in the book through a set of case studies each of which juxtaposes a canonical modernist text with a postcolonial text that shows how modernist modes metamorphosed in interaction with the turbulent and volatile realities of colonies and new nations struggling to arrive at a modernity of their own in contexts marked by colonial histories Thus Kafka's allegories are juxtaposed with the use of allegory in writers like Salman Rushdie and J M Coetzee the gendered modernity of Virginia Woolf is juxtaposed with the disturbing and powerful fictions of writers such as Jean Rhys and Katherine Mansfield the intellectualized and urbanized spirituality of T S Eliot's The Waste Land is re-read in the revisionist contexts created by the brilliant and troubled urban spirituality of writers such as Arun Kolatkar from India and a text such as The Woman Who Had Two Navels from the Philippines The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law ,2020-07-27 The Asian Yearbook of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law aims to publish peer reviewed scholarly articles and reviews as well as significant developments in human rights and humanitarian law It examines international human rights and humanitarian law with a global reach though its particular focus is on the Asian region The focused theme of Volume 4 is India and Human Rights
