Encyclopedia of the Romantic Era, 1760-1850 Christopher John Murray, 2013-05-13 In 850 analytical articles this two volume set explores the developments that influenced the profound changes in thought and sensibility during the second half of the eighteenth century and the first half of the nineteenth century The Encyclopedia provides readers with a clear detailed and accurate reference source on the literature thought music and art of the period demonstrating the rich interplay of international influences and cross currents at work and to explore the many issues raised by the very concepts of Romantic and Romanticism Benezit Dictionary of British Graphic Artists and Illustrators Stephen Bury, 2012-06-21 This dictionary consists of over 3000 entries on a range of British artists from medieval manuscript illuminators to contemporary cartoonists Its core is comprised of the entries focusing on British graphic artists and illustrators from the 2006 Benezit Dictionary of Artists with an additional 90 revised and 60 new articles

The Victoria and Albert Museum Elizabeth James, 2013-10-15 A comprehensive bibliography and exhibition chronology of the world's greatest museum of the decorative arts and design The Victoria and Albert Museum or South Kensington Museum as it used to be known was founded by the British Government in 1852 out of the proceeds from the Great Exhibition of 1851 Like the Exhibition it aimed to improve the expertise of designers and the taste of the public by exposing them to examples of good design from all countries and periods 2 500 publications have to date been produced by for or in association with the V A The National Art Library which is part of the Museum has prepared this detailed catalogue supplemented by a secondary list of 500 other books closely related to the V A The 1 500 exhibitions and displays recorded include those held in the main Museum and at its branches the Bethnal Green Museum now the National Museum of Childhood and the Theatre Museum Covent Garden and additionally those it has organized at external venues in Great Britain and abroad The exhibitions and publications are fully cross referenced and there are name title and subject indexes to the whole work as well as an explanatory introduction Richard Parkes Bonington Richard Parkes Bonington, Matt Cambridge, 2002 Bonington Malcolm Cormack, Richard Parkes Bonington, 1989 Richard Parkes Bonington 1802-28 stands as one of England's most important and prolific landscape artists ranking alongside Turner and Constable as a prime exponent of the English Romantic Movement His watercolour paintings are considered to be exemplary of the English tradition Bonington's reputation for poetic and topographical landscapes as well as for dash and brilliance earned him a renown that spanned Europe but which has mysteriously dimmed with the years This timely and unique assessment of Bonington will once again establish an appreciation of his work as a peerless artist Publisher's description Rethinking British Romantic History, 1770-1845 Porscha Fermanis, John Regan, 2014-11-27 Historians and literary scholars tend to agree that British intellectual culture underwent a fundamental transformation between 1770 and 1845 Yet they are unusually divided about the nature of that transformation and whether it is best understood as an epistemic rupture from or a continuous dialogue with the long eighteenth century Rethinking British Romantic History 1770 1845 rethinks the ways in which we understand the historical writing and the historical consciousness of late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain by arguing that British historicism developed largely in quasi and para historical genres such as memoir biography verse fiction and painting rather than in works of real history In a number of inter related essays on changing generic forms styles methods and standards the collection demonstrates that the aesthetic developments associated with British literary Romanticism not only intersected in mutually dependent ways with concurrent experiments and innovations in historical writing but that these intersections forced an epistemological crisis a deeply felt tension about the role of feeling and imagination in historical writing that is still resonating in historiographical debates today In exploring this theme the volume also seeks to consider wider questions about the philosophy of history and literature including questions of truth evidence professionalization disciplinary strategies and methodology At its heart is the idea that literary texts and other artistic representations of history can have historical value and should therefore be taken seriously by practitioners of history in all its forms Richard Parkes Bonington Stephen Duffy,2003 All of Bonington s paintings owned by the Wallace Collection are illustrated in this book Reading Landscape Simon Pugh,1990

Britannia's Palette Nicholas Tracy,2007-02-09 Britannia s Palette looks at the lives of British artists who witnessed the naval war against the French Republic and Empire between 1793 and 1815 This band of brothers through their artistic and entrepreneurial efforts established the images of the war at sea that were central to the understanding their contemporaries had of events images that endure to this day In this unprecedented book Nicholas Tracy reveals the importance of the self employed artist to the study of a nation at war He includes lively accounts of serving officers retired sailors and academy trained artists who often under the threat of debtor s prison struggled to balance the standards of art with the public desire for heroic reassuring images Containing over eighty illustrations Britannia s Palette explores a varied and exciting collection of paintings that reveal the poignancy of the human experience of war The East, Imagined, Experienced, Remembered James Thompson,David Scott,1988 Nineteenth- and Twentieth-century European Drawings Richard R. Great British Watercolors Matthew Hargraves,2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907 1999 assembled one of the world s greatest collections of British drawings and watercolors In his memoirs he wrote of their beauty and freshness their immediacy and sureness of technique their comprehensiveness of subject matter their vital qualities their Englishness This catalogue celebrating the centenary of Mellon s birth features eighty eight outstanding watercolors from the fifty thousand works of art on paper with which he endowed the Yale Center for British Art The selection spans the emergence of watercolor painting in the mid 18th century to its apogee in the mid 19th These works highlight the diversity of British watercolors showcasing both landscape and figurative works by some of the principal artists working in the medium including Thomas Gainsborough Thomas Rowlandson William Blake and J M W Turner Black Bodies, White Gold Anna Arabindan-Kesson,2021-03-22 In

Black Bodies White Gold Anna Arabindan Kesson uses cotton a commodity central to the slave trade and colonialism as a focus for new interpretations of the way art commerce and colonialism were intertwined in the nineteenth century Atlantic world In doing so Arabindan Kesson models an art historical approach that makes the histories of the Black diaspora central to nineteenth century cultural production She traces the emergence of a speculative vision that informs perceptions of Blackness in which artistic renderings of cotton as both commodity and material became inexorably tied to the monetary value of Black bodies From the production and representation of negro cloth the textile worn by enslaved plantation workers to depictions of Black sharecroppers in photographs and paintings Arabindan Kesson demonstrates that visuality was the mechanism through which Blackness and cotton became equated as resources for extraction In addition to interrogating the work of nineteenth century artists she engages with contemporary artists such as Hank Willis Thomas Lubaina Himid and Yinka Shonibare CBE RA who contend with the commercial and imperial processes shaping constructions of Blackness and meanings of labor

English Watercolors Graham Reynolds,1998-04-21 English artists have made a unique contribution to the art of watercolor painting In no other Western country has this very attractive medium been used so consistently or for works of such stature as in England between 1750 and the present day In this general survey of the whole period Graham Reynolds formerly Keeper of Paintings and of Prints and Drawings at the Victoria Albert Museum discusses the paintings of over 100 artists including the well known watercolorists such as Cozens Girtin Cotman and De Wint as well as artists who are equally known for their work in other media Gainsborough Turner Constable Sargent Henry Moore The 140 illustrations 64 in color show the work of these and lesser known artists and reveal the versatility of this medium so the reader will be introduced to its use for illustrative caricature and portraiture as well as to the finest examples of traditional landscape watercolors
