The wide scholarly interests of Scots in the Restoration period are analysed by Murray Simpson through this in depth study of the library of James Nairn 1629-1678 a Scottish parish minister Nairn's collection demonstrates a remarkable receptivity to new intellectual ideas At some two thousand titles Nairn's is the biggest library formed in this period for which we have detailed and accurate records The collection is analysed by subject In addition there is a biographical study and chapters investigating aspects of the Scottish book market and comparing other contemporary Scottish clerical libraries A short title catalogue of the collection giving references to relevant online bibliographies and catalogues a select provenance index and a subject index complete the work Book Madness

Denise Gigante, 2022-10-18 The fascinating history of American bookishness as told through the sale of Charles Lamb's library in 1848 Charles Lamb's library a heap of sixty scruffy old books singed with smoke soaked with gin sprinkled with crumbs stripped of illustrations and bescribbled by the essayist and his literary friends caused a sensation when it was sold in New York in 1848 The transatlantic book world watched as the relics of a man revered as the patron saint of book collectors were dispersed Following those books through the stories of the bibliophiles who shaped intellectual life in America booksellers publishers journalists editors bibliographers librarians actors antiquarians philanthropists politicians poets clergymen Denise Gigante brings to life a lost world of letters at a time when Americans were busy assembling the country's major public university and society libraries A human tale of loss obsession and spiritual survival this book reveals the magical power books can have to bring people together and will be an absorbing read for anyone interested in what makes a book special Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1904 The Book-Collector
