Cookbook Kip Koehler,2013-03-11 How many times have you said to your mate or to a friend that Company is coming and I have no idea what to serve before dinner Clam dip and potato chips even though it is in this cookbook and is quite tasty is not an option that would go down well except perhaps in a college dorm So be a little creative and try a few of these recipes that sound like they would work for you and your guests Of course they taste just fine for a party of one or two One way to spruce up almost any normally on a cracker style of appetizer is to display it on individual leaves of Belgium endive Not only does it look maaaaarvelous darling but it also adds a satisfying crunch to the appetizer While many appetizer recipes amount to little more than scooping a nondescript concoction onto an equally nondescript cracker my goal is to present a variety of interesting finger foods that have both visual and taste appeal I have also avoided most of the recipes that have a cream cheese base because they are all too common
