Books on art history are nearly always lavishly illustrated with quality colour reproductions of famous masterpieces Yet this has not always been the case it was only in the eighteenth century that art books came to be illustrated with beautiful images Picturing Art History shows how the fundamentally new notion of the history of art as a visual history was responsible for this development In the age before photography paper collections of prints and drawings offered the only way to picture the artistic past For the first time illustrations became indispensable tools as the new belief grew that art works rather than artists were the measure of the artistic past Internationally renowned art scholars such as Bottari 1689 1775 Winckelmann 1717 1768 and d Agincourt 1730 1814 collected reproductions in the form of prints and drawings triggering discussions of the nature of illustrations as representations of art classification of reproductions to demonstrate trends in art history and the relationship between image and text in the art literature With the help of illustrations art history became an extraordinary visual experience vital to the understanding of the history of art     All Hands ,1945     Universal Catalogue of Books on Art: L to Z National Art Library (Great Britain),1870
