Coping With Adolescent Refugees The Mariel Boatlift The Mariel Boatlift:

Coping with Adolescent Refugees José Szapocznik, Raquel E. Cohen, Roberto E. Hernández, 1985 Voices from Mariel José Manuel García, 2018-02-16 Between April and September 1980 more than 125 000 Cuban refugees fled their homeland seeking freedom from Fidel Castro's dictatorship They departed in boats from the port of Mariel and braved the dangerous 90 mile journey across the Straits of Florida Told in the words of the immigrants themselves the stories in Voices from Mariel offer an up close view of this international crisis the largest oversea mass migration in Latin American history Former refugees describe what it was like to gather among thousands of dissidents on the grounds of the Peruvian embassy in Cuba where the movement first began They were abused by the masses who protested them as they made their way to the Mariel harbor before they were finally permitted to leave the country by Castro in an attempt to disperse the civil unrest They waited interminably for boats in oppressive heat squalor and desperation at the crowded tent camp known as El Mosquito They embarked on vessels overloaded with too many passengers and battled harrowing storms on their journeys across the open ocean Author Jose Manuel Garcia who emigrated on the Mariel boatlift as a teenager describes the events that led to the exodus and explains why so many Cubans wanted to leave the island The shockingly high numbers of refugees who came through immigration centers in Key West Miami and other parts of the United States was a message loud and clear to the world of the people's discontent with Castro's government and the unfulfilled promises of the Cuban Revolution Based on the award winning documentary of the same name Voices from Mariel features the experiences of marielitos from all walks of life These are stories of disappointed dreams love for family and country and hope for a better future This book illuminates a powerful moment in history that will continue to be felt in Cuba and the United States for generations to come Cubans, an Epic Journey Sam Verdeja, Guillermo Martínez, 2011 This book is a collection of more than thirty essays by renowned scholars historians journalists and media professionals that portray the experience of Cubans exiled in the United States and other countries in the last sixty years Coping with Adolescent Refugees José Szapocznik, Raquel E. to a communist dictatorship under which the people of the island became virtually cut off from the outside world He illustrates how escalating internal tensions during the regime's second decade in power culminated in an exodus of over 125 000 Cuban refugees across the Straits of Florida during the spring and summer of 1980 Alongside a fast paced narrative offering a brief history of the Mariel Boatlift Triay presents testimonies from former Mariel refugees who recall their lives in Cuba before the boatlift and how they longed to reunite with family members who lived in exile in the United States Their captivating stories detail the physical and psychological abuse they endured in Cuba at the hands of pro government mobs and the mistreatment many experienced at processing centers there before reaching the port of Mariel They recall treacherous journeys to Key West aboard vessels that were deliberately overcrowded to life threatening levels by Cuban authorities as well as their experiences settling in Miami and beyond Called the scum escoria of society by the Cuban government a false portrayal accepted and spread by some in the American media Mariel refugees faced extraordinary challenges upon entering U S society Yet despite the obstacles placed before them the overwhelming majority of these immigrants successfully transitioned to their new lives as Americans and many have emerged as leading professionals scholars writers artists and businesspeople This book shares their hardships and successes while profoundly illustrating the human impact of international power struggles Diversity and Visual Impairment Madeline Milian, Jane N.
