Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States United States. Department of State, 1960 The Conference of Berlin United States. Department of State. Historical Office, 1960 Foreign Relations of the United States, Diplomatic Papers United States. Department of State, 1960 Confronting Captivity Arieh J. Kochavi, 2011-01-20 How was it possible that almost all of the nearly 300 000 British and American troops who fell into German hands during World War II survived captivity in German POW camps and returned home almost as soon as the war ended In Confronting Captivity Arieh J Kochavi offers a behind the scenes look at the living conditions in Nazi camps and traces the actions the British and American governments took and didn't take to ensure the safety of their captured soldiers Concern in London and Washington about the safety of these POWs was mitigated by the recognition that the Nazi leadership tended to adhere to the Geneva Convention when it came to British and U S prisoners Following the invasion of Normandy however Allied apprehension over the safety of POWs turned into anxiety for their very lives Yet Britain and the United States took the calculated risk of counting on a swift conclusion to the war as the Soviets approached Germany from the east Ultimately Kochavi argues it was more likely that the lives of British and American POWs were spared because of their race rather than any actions their governments took on their behalf Letters Sent by the Director of the United States Mint at Philadelphia, 1795-1817 United States. National Archives and Records Service, 1969 General Wladyslaw Sikorski, 1881-1943 Evan McGilvray, 2024-11-30 General Wladyslaw Sikorski was the Head of the wartime Polish Government and Polish Commander in Chief 1939-1943 Sikorski rose to prominence in Poland between 1910 and 1918 as part of the movement towards Polish independence achieved in 1918 In 1920 Sikorski was largely responsible for the defeat of the Red Army In 1926 he fell from favor following a military coup During this fallow period 1926-1939 Sikorski traveled mainly in France He also wrote influential military science treatises In September 1939 Germany and the Soviet Union invaded and annexed Poland Sikorski his military offices refused by the Polish Government fled to Romania There he was intercepted by the French ambassador to Poland and taken to Paris where he established a Polish Government in Exile and rebuilt the Polish Army In May 1940 France was overrun by Germany Sikorski removed himself and his government to London There he began to rebuild the Polish army largely lost in France Following the German invasion of the Soviet Union Sikorski was forced by the British Government to accept the Soviets as allies This led to a larger Polish army being formed in the Soviet Union and sent to the Middle East commanded by General Anders who was to become a thorn in Sikorski's side By 1943 the two men were clearly enemies Sikorski died in an air crash off Gibraltar The cause has never been satisfactorily established The Royal Navy and German Naval Disarmament 1942-1947 Chris Madsen, 2020-05-05 After the bitter lessons of German self disarmament in 1919 Britain was far more alert and focused when it came to overseeing the disarmament of Germany's naval forces after World War II This book shows how well prepared the British were second time around Preliminary Inventory
