Geographers of the Ancient Greek World: Volume 2 D. Graham J. Shipley, 2024-04-18 Ancient Greek geographical writing is represented not just by the surviving works of the well known authors Strabo Pausanias and Ptolemy but also by many other texts dating from the Archaic to the Late Antique period Most of these texts are however hard for non specialists to find and many have never been translated into English This volume the work of an international team of experts presents the most important thirty six texts in new accurate translations In addition there are explanatory notes and authoritative introductions to each text which offer a new understanding of the individual writings and demonstrate their importance no longer marginal but in the mainstream of Greek literature and science The book includes twenty eight newly drawn maps images of the medieval manuscripts in which most of these works survive and a full Introduction providing a comprehensive survey of the field of Greek and Roman geography

Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove, 2019-11-26 In Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove offers an account of the origins development and spatial distribution of fortified sites in the Armenian Kingdom 1198 1375 Despite the abundance of archaeological remains the Armenian heritage had previously not been closely studied However through the examination of known and newly identified castles this work has now increased the number of sites and features associated with the Armenian Kingdom By the construction of numerous powerful castles the Armenians succeeded in establishing an independent kingdom which lasted until the Mamluk conquest in 1375 Dweezil Vandekerckhove convincingly proves that the medieval castles in Cilicia are of outstanding architectural interest with a significant place in the history of military architecture

The Armenian Rebellion at Van Justin McCarthy, 2006-09-29 Presents a long overdue examination of the actions at Van an ancient city in southeastern Anatolia where the Armenian Revolt is believed to have been a precursor to a great massacre of the people of the East The City Lament Tamar M. Boyadjian, 2018-12-15 Poetic elegies for lost or fallen cities are seemingly as old as cities themselves In the Judeo Christian tradition this genre finds its purest expression in the book of Lamentations which mourns the destruction of Jerusalem in Arabic this genre is known as the ritha al mudun In The City Lament Tamar M Boyadjian traces the trajectory of the genre across the Mediterranean world during the period commonly referred to as the early Crusades 1095-1191 focusing on elegies and other expressions of loss that address the spiritual and strategic objective of those wars Jerusalem Through readings of city laments in English French Latin Arabic and Armenian literary traditions Boyadjian challenges hegemonic and entrenched approaches to the study of medieval literature and the Crusades The City Lament exposes significant literary intersections between Latin Christendom the Islamic caliphates of the Middle East and the Armenian kingdom of Cilicia arguing for shared poetic and rhetorical modes Reframing our understanding of literary sources produced across the medieval Mediterranean from an antagonistic orientalist model to an analogous one Boyadjian demonstrates how lamentations about the loss of Jerusalem whether to Muslim or Christian forces reveal fascinating parallels and rich cross cultural exchanges Newsletter ,1995 Queens of the Armenians Hayk Khach'atryan, Barbara J. Merguerian, 2001 The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting René Brimo, 2016-12-13 The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting is a new critical translation of René Brimo's classic study of eighteenth and nineteenth century patronage and art collecting in the United States Originally published in French in 1938 Brimo's foundational text is a detailed examination of collecting in America from colonial times to the end of World War I when American collectors came to dominate the European art market This work helped shape the then fledgling field of American art history by explaining larger cultural transformations as manifested in the collecting habits of American elites It remains the most substantive account of the history of collecting in the United States In his introduction Kenneth Haltman provides a biographical study of the author and his social and intellectual milieu in France and the United States He also explores how Brimo's work formed a turning point and initiated a new area of academic study the history of art collecting Making accessible a text that has until now only been available in French Haltman's elegant translation of The Evolution of Taste in American Collecting sheds new critical light on the essential work of this extraordinary but overlooked scholar Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region Houman A. Sadri, 2023-12-19 Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region From Theory to Policy combines IR theory and policy in a readable format Houman A Sadri discusses the distinctive challenges of the South Caucasus region and offers a survey of relevant IR theories Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgia are covered in depth since independence These former Soviet republics have experienced major conflicts and cooperation since independence in the early 1990s The 2008 Russian invasion of Georgia and the Armenian-Azeri Wars captured headlines and affected markets but the completion of energy pipelines exposed the complexity of cooperation in connecting the regional and global political economy Conflict and Cooperation in the South Caucasus Region has three major purposes 1 To provide a survey of the major developments of the Caucasus States 2 To analyze the application of IR prominent theories and 3 To offer practical policy options for policymakers seeking to understand the South Caucasus region What does the remainder of the 21st Century hold for Armenia Azerbaijan and Georgian Where are the main sources of threats How can these threats be effectively dealt with The Heritage of Armenian Literature Agop Jack Hacikyan, Gabriel Basmajian, Edward S.

Russell, 2021-02-08

The present volume is a collection of articles published by Professor James R Russell of Harvard University in various journals over the past decades James Russell has been one of the pioneers in the field of Armenian and Iranian Studies where he has demonstrated the importance of Iranian civilization for pre Christian Armenia The connection between the two civilizations has been part of the tireless work of Professor Russell and I hope this publication shows the immense importance of his work for both Armenian and Iranian Studies I would like to thank Professor Houri Berberian Director of the UC Irvine Armenian Studies Program as well as Mr Mamigonian and the National Association for Armenian Studies and Research NAASR for supporting the publication of this book This volume was previously published by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies University of California Irvine From the Indian Ocean to the Mediterranean Sebouh David Aslanian, 2011

Drawing on a rich trove of documents including correspondence not seen for 300 years this study explores the emergence and growth of a remarkable global trade network operated by Armenian silk merchants from a small outpost in the Persian Empire Based in New Julfa Isfahan in what is now Iran these merchants operated a network of commercial settlements that stretched from London and Amsterdam to Manila and Acapulco The New Julfan Armenians were the only Eurasian community that was able to operate simultaneously and successfully in all the major empires of the early modern world both land based Asian empires and the emerging sea borne empires astonishingly without the benefits of an imperial network and state that accompanied and facilitated European mercantile expansion during the same period This book brings to light for the first time the trans imperial cosmopolitan world of the New Julfans Among other topics it explores the effects of long distance trade on the organization of community life the ethos of trust and cooperation that existed among merchants and the importance of information networks and communication in the operation of early modern mercantile communities
