Alberta Oil and the Decline of Democracy in Canada Meenal Shrivastava, Lorna Stefanick, 2015-10-01 In Democracy in Alberta The Theory and Practice of a Quasi Party System published in 1953 C B Macpherson explored the nature of democracy in a province that was dominated by a single class of producers At the time Macpherson was talking about Alberta farmers but today the province can still be seen as a one industry economy the 1947 discovery of oil in Leduc having inaugurated a new era For all practical purposes the oil rich jurisdiction of Alberta also remains a one party state Not only has there been little opposition to a government that has been in power for over forty years but Alberta ranks behind other provinces in terms of voter turnout while also boasting some of the lowest scores on a variety of social welfare indicators The contributors to Alberta Oil and the Decline of Democracy critically assess the political peculiarities of Alberta and the impact of the government's relationship to the oil industry on the lives of the province's most vulnerable citizens They also examine the public policy environment and the entrenchment of neoliberal political ideology in the province In probing the relationship between oil dependency and democracy in the context of an industrialized nation Alberta Oil and the Decline of Democracy offers a crucial test of the oil inhibits democracy thesis that has hitherto been advanced in relation to oil producing countries in the Global South If reliance on oil production appears to undermine democratic participation and governance in Alberta then what does the Alberta case suggest for the future of democracy in industrialized nations such as the United States and Australia which are now in the process of exploiting their own substantial shale oil reserves The environmental consequences of oil production have for example been the subject of much attention Little is likely to change however if citizens of oil rich countries cannot effectively intervene to influence government policy Canadiana ,1991 Faking Death Penny Cousineau-Levine,2003 In Faking Death Penny Cousineau Levine examines the work of over 120 Canadian photographers revealing important aspects of Canadian identity and imagination Contrasting Canadian photography with American and European traditions she shows that Canadian photographers are often preoccupied with a place that is elsewhere a doubling and duality that also occurs in Canadian literature film and political life Subverting the documentary tradition and other stylistic idioms for their own distinctive ends Canadian photographers exhibit an ambivalent preoccupation with death and dying bondage and entrapment Cousineau Levine argues that this is characteristically a faked death that expresses a collective Canadian wish for a symbolic passage to national maturity The book includes 16 colour reproductions and 150 duotones by artists such as Raymonde April Jeff Wall Lynne Cohen Charles Gagnon Evergon Michel Lambeth Thaddeus Holownia Geoffrey James Genevi ve Cadieux Shelley Niro Diana Thorneycroft Jin me Yoon Ian Wallace and Ken Lum This work provides a visual introduction to one of Canada s most vibrant and internationally recognized artistic media Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey,University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives,Michael McMordie,Geoffrey Simmins,1995 This publication part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library examines twelve architect created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period including Raymond T Affleck Raymond Moriyama Arthur Erickson Douglas Cardinal John B Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included such as the Vancouver based firm of McCarter Nairne Calgary s Jack Long and Edmonton s Peter Hemingway Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses drawings and photos there are interpretative essays on each A co authored introductory essay explores several related themes modernity the contemporary house approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice American Reference Books Annual ,1994 1970 issued in 2 vols v 1 General reference social sciences history economics business v 2 Fine arts humanities science and engineering Art Libraries Journal ,2001 College and Research Libraries ,1992 Includes section Book reviews Mar 1940
