Art As Therapy With Children

Judith Aron Rubin

Art As Therapy With Children:

Art as Therapy with Children Edith Kramer, 1993 A classic in the field one which may have inspired many to become art therapists this eminently readable volume is ideal for acquainting students with some of the fundamental ideas in the field Subjects such as a sense of identity feelings of emptiness interpretation of reality ambivalence aggression defenses sublimation are discussed as Edith Kramer's eloquent words capture the interplay between child artwork therapist bringing to life the fast moving events in an artroom peopled by emotionally disturbed children Kramer has a deep knowledge of psychoanalysis skill intuition as an artist the humane love of a born teacher In one reviewer's opinion her book's discussion of sublimation art defense aggression the role of the art therapist have not been surpassed by later volumes or other authors Richly documented with case material abundantly illustrated this book offers inspiration not only to fledgling clinicians but to any one working with children who wishes to understand how why art can have such a profound effect Edith Kramer is a practicing artist educator who has worked with disturbed handicapped normal children in a variety of settings She is currently adjunct professor of art therapy at NYU

Working with Children in Art Therapy Caroline Case, Tessa Dalley, 2002-01-31 Working with Children in Art Therapy is a collection of papers by ten art therapists working in the major child care agencies as part of a professional team Each paper describes a different theoretical perspective and clinical setting with an emphasis on the language of art in art therapy and ways of understanding non verbal communication Contributions cover working with children in psychiatric clinics within the National Health Service in mainstream and special schools and in the social services

Art Therapy with Children on the Autistic Spectrum Kathy Evans, Janek Dubowski, 2001 Art Therapy with Children on the Autistic Spectrum presents a new model of practice which primarily focuses on communication difficulties The authors describe how negative behaviours and subsequent tension may be alleviated when the autistic child is involved in interactive art making with the therapist

Medical Art Therapy with Children Cathy A. Malchiodi, 1999 Drawing on case material from a variety of situations the book describes medical research on medical art therapy with children and practical approaches to using art activities with them The text looks at children with burns HIV asthma and cancer
