Armenia Restructuring To Sustain Universal General Education:

Public Expenditure Review of Armenia World Bank, Pavel Safariyan, Armenia (Republic) Finanseri ev ?konomikayi Nakhararut?yun, 2003 Armenia : restructuring to sustain universal general education Gillian Perkins, Ruslan Yemtsov, 2001 Armenia Gillian Perkins, Ruslan Yemtsov, 2001-01-01 This book compares the recent evolution of the structure of inputs and expenditure in Armenia s general education with international norms and practice In the context of the government s sectoral reform strategy it also outlines various proposals for restructuring the system The study clarifies what inefficiencies might mean for future costs and performance of the system highlights the trade offs involved and identifies measures needed to overcome constraints to rationalization Structural Reforms in Southeastern Europe Since the Kosovo Conflict Daniela Gressani, Saumya Mitra, 2002-01-01 This study examines the progress made by the countries of south east Europe Albania Bosnia and Herzegovina Bulgaria Croatia FYR Macedonia Romania and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia towards implementing structural economic reforms in the three years since the end of the Kosovo conflict as well as considering the challenges that lie ahead It discusses four key areas of reform strengthening public finances and fighting corruption creating a liberal trade environment encouraging foreign investment and fostering the growth of private markets Generating public sector resources to finance sustainable development Stefano Pagiola, 2002 Annotation This specific objective of this book is to explore potential avenues for generating more resources for the public sector to invest in sustainable development Institutional Reform for Irrigation and Drainage Fernando J. Gonzalez, Salman M. A. Salman, 2002-01-01 If sustainable management of tropical forests is to be accomplished and deforestation brought under control the on the ground performance of existing forest concessions along with the allocation of new concessions will have to be strengthened This study examines the failures of forest concessions and the loss of tropical forests due to mismanagement during the last two decades It also emphasizes the potential gains resulting from strengthening the allocation management and supervision of concessions by concentrating on improving procedures introducing performance incentives and monitoring key performance elements Agricultural Incentives in Sub-Saharan Africa Robert Frederick Townsend, 1999-01-01 Printed on Demand Limited stock is held for this title If you would like to order 30 copies or more please contact books worldbank org Contact books worldbank org if currently unavailable QUOTEAs we move into the 21st century Africa faces tremendous opportunities for growth in which agriculture will continue to play a prominent role Implementing the unfinished policy agenda is critical to realizing these opportunities QUOTE Hans P Binswanger Sector Director The main focus of this study is on improving the policy regime in Africa to stimulate agricultural growth It examines the state of agricultural incentives in Sub Saharan Africa taking stock of the current policy environment and its recent evolution to update knowledge and to help develop a stronger consensus on the appropriate policies and incentives that will stimulate agricultural growth The global environment is examined together with the macroeconomic export crop food crop and fertilizer policies in 16 African countries Does Eurosclerosis Matter? Michelle Riboud, Carolina Sánchez-Páramo, Carlos Silva-Jauregui, 2002 Whether or not labor market rigidities are an important contributor to persistently high levels of unemployment remains at the center of an important debate in Europe European labor markets are often viewed as rigid and inflexible in opposition to those in North America where legislation is less protective and fosters more mobility This paper shows that the labor market policies adopted by Central and Eastern European countries aspiring to join the European Union do not appear excessively rigid However significant and wide ranging economic reform programs make it difficult to assess the impact of labor market institutions Kosovo Saumya Mitra, 2001-01-01 This report contains discussion of the principal economic and social reform policy tasks facing Kosovo It is intended to present ideas to the interim civil administration for the consolidation of peace Key reforms are the formulation of a sustainable budget the establishment of a liberal trade and customs regime use of a hard currency for internal transactions creation of a reformed framework for encouraging the growth of private SMEs Attacking Extreme Poverty Quentin Wodon, 2001-01-01 this book gives us a history lesson and a guide on how to build commercial finance that fits the needs of the world's poorest majority Policy makers finance leaders and anyone who wants to join this revolution in banking must read this book Around the world a revolution is occurring in finance for low income people The microfinance revolution is delivering financial services to the economically active poor on a large scale through competing financially self sufficient institutions In a few countries this has already happened in others it is under way The emerging microfinance industry has profound implications for social and economic development For the first time in history capital is well on its way to being democratized The Microfinance Revolution in three volumes is aimed at a diverse readership Acirc economists bankers policymakers donors and social scientists microfinance practitioners and specialists in local finance and rural and urban development and members of the general public interested in development This first volume Sustainable Finance for the Poor focuses on the shift from government and donor subsidized credit systems to self sufficient microfinance institutions providing voluntary savings and credit services Acirc A magnificent work Acirc Elizabeth Littlefield CEO Consultative Group to Assist the Poorest CGAP Acirc A much needed wake up call for economists Acirc David E Bloom Clarence James Gamble Professor of Economics and Demography Harvard University Acirc A major work that will unquestionably lie at the very center of microfinance literature Acirc Robert Peck Christen Senior Adviser CGAP Secretariat Academic Director Microfinance Training Program Naropa University Acirc A seminal work Acirc Ira W Lieberman former CEO of CGAP Senior Manager World Bank From Transition to EU Accession Pietro Garibaldi, Mattia Makovec, Gabriella Stoyanova, 2001-01-01 This book studies the Bulgarian labor market with a view to understanding the interactions between the performance of the Bulgarian economy and the functioning of its labor market It evaluates the position of Bulgaria vis a vis compliance with the acquis communautaire and provides a set of key policy recommendations that may enhance the job creation potential in years to come Managing

Catastrophic Disaster Risks Using Alternative Risk Financing and Pooled Insurance Structures John D. Pollner,2001-01-01

This report examines the existing constraints and opportunities to implement a catastrophe insurance system which can resolve the key obstacles currently impeding broader implementation of a risk funding approach The four main pillars in such a strategy involve strengthening the insurance sector regulatory requirements and supervision establishment of broad based pooled catastrophe funding structures with efficient risk transfer tools promoting public insurance policies linked to programs for loss reduction in the uninsured sectors and strengthening the risk assessment and enforcement of structural measures such as zoning and building code compliance

Forest Concession Policies and Revenue Systems John Andrew Gray, 2002-01-01 Forest concessions have been an important element of forestry and forest management in many countries including developing countries. However, if sustainable management of tropical forests is to be achieved and deforestation brought under control, the allocation, management and supervision of forest concessions will need to be strengthened. This study examines the failures of forest concessions over the last 20 years and highlights the potential gains resulting from concentrating on improving procedures, introducing performance incentives and monitoring key performance elements.

The Challenge of Rural Development in the EU Accession Countries Csaba Csáki, Zvi Lerman, 2001-01-01 From the Abstract: This volume examines the reforms and policy changes necessary in the rural sectors of the ten countries that have started the accession process for eventual membership in the European Union: Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Romania, Slovakia and Slovenia. The papers in this volume are selected from the presentations at the Third World Bank/FAO EU Accession Workshop held in Sofia, Bulgaria, on June 17-20, 2000, and are organized around four topics: i) defining the concepts of rural development options for EU accession candidate countries; ii) rural development in the European Union; iii) rural development in Central and Eastern Europe; and iv) international experiences and the role of international organizations in supporting rural development in the EU accession candidate countries. This volume is intended for agricultural policy makers and government officials in the candidate countries, EU officials, World Bank and FAO staff, development scholars, and all others interested in the process of rural development in Central and Eastern Europe.
