Army Wives Veterans Without Glory:

Army Wives Louise Lawrence Fuller, 2001-07 Soldiering on - Finding My Homes Christine Kriha Kastner, 2011-04-27

Some military brats rode camels in Arabia others leaped from parachute training towers but this little army brat rode backwards in the rear jump seat of the family station wagon all the way across America without a seatbelt Christine Kriha Kastner grew up the only way she knew on military bases stateside and around the world By the time she turned in her military I D card when her father retired from the U S Army she had lived in fifteen different houses and attended ten different schools Situation normal for an army brat Living on Okinawa was a memorable overseas assignment So when an opportunity to return to that little island in the Pacific Ocean arose after forty years she couldn't pass it up Kastner returned to the island she remembered from her youth with the 73 year old mother of one of her best friends Together they took a Kubasaki High School reunion trip timed to coincide with the 4th Uchinanchu Festival that brought thousands of Okinawans back to the island from all over the world It was the adventure of their lifetimes just not quite the karaoke sake and pachinko experience they expected Waiting Wives Donna Moreau, 2010-05-11 In 1964 as the first B 52s took flight in what would become America's longest combat mission an old Air Force base on the plains of Kansas became Schilling Manor the only base ever to be set aside for the wives and children of soldiers assigned to Vietnam Author Donna Moreau was the daughter of one such waiting wife and here she writes of growing up at a time when The Flintstones were interrupted with news of firefights fraggings and protests when the evening news announced death tolls along with the weather forecasts The women and children of Schilling Manor fought on the emotional front of the war It was not a front composed of battle plans and bullets Their enemies were fear loneliness lack of information and the slow tick of time Waiting Wives The Story of Schilling Manor Home Front to the Vietnam War tells the story of the last generation of hat and glove military wives called upon by their country to pack without question to follow without comment and to wait quietly with a smile A heartfelt book that focuses on this other hidden side of war Waiting Wives is a narrative investigation of an extraordinary group of women A compelling memoir and domestic drama Waiting Wives is also the story of a country in the midst of change of a country at war with a war Life in the U.S. Armed Forces Anni Baker, 2007-12-30 Anni Baker has created a fascinating exploration of life in the armed forces as it has been experienced by millions of men women and children over the past six decades Her book examines the factors that shape military service and military culture from grueling training exercises to sexual relations with local women from overseas duty to the peculiar life of the military brat The book begins with an examination of the enlistment process follows the military lifecycle through career decisions promotions raising families and retirement explores the impact of war on military society and ends with a discussion of the place of the armed forces in the United States A wide variety of sources were used in this study including contemporary scholarship government and military records public media and most important interviews and written materials from military personnel retirees family members and civilian employees

Using a lively and readable style Baker blends clear explanations of elements of military life information on the development of military society and the voices of those who serve into an insightful account of this fascinating subculture It is the author's view that not only is study of the U S military a valuable undertaking in itself but in addition it will enrich our perspective on civilian life and culture in the United States The military is a distinct society based on a set of common values that are sometimes though not always at odds with those of civilian society The extent to which active duty personnel family members and civilians internalize these values dictates their comfort with military life and their choice of a military career Through a discussion of life in the military Baker examines how the values traditions and norms of the armed forces are articulated and shared how they influence the individual and the institution and what their role is in American society as a whole Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents ,1972 Hearings United States. Congress. House,1945 Dying, Death, and Bereavement Lewis R. Aiken,2001 This book is a brief but comprehensive survey of research writings and professional practices concerned with death and dying It is interdisciplinary and eclectic medical psychological religious philosophical artistic demographics bereavement and widowhood are all considered but with an emphasis on psychological aspects A variety of viewpoints and research findings on topics subsumed under thanatology receive thorough consideration Questions activities and projects at the end of each chapter enhance reflection and personalize the material This fourth edition features material on moral issues and court cases concerned with abortion and euthanasia the widespread problem of AIDS and other deadly diseases the tragedies occasioned by epidemics starvation and war and the resumption of capital punishment in many states The book's enhanced multicultural tone reflects the increased economic social and physical interdependency among the nations of the world Topics receiving increased attention in the fourth edition are terror management attitudes and practices concerning death cross cultural concepts of afterlife gallows humor out of body experiences spiritualism mass suicide pet and romantic death euthanasia right to die postbereavement depression firearm deaths in children children's understanding of death child adolescent adult and physician assisted suicide religious customs and death confronting death legal issues in death dying and bereavement death education death music creativity and death longevity broken heart phenomenon beliefs in life after death new definitions of death children's acceptance of a parent's death terminal illness and the politics of death and dying A Library of American Literature from the Earliest Settlement to the Present Time: Literature of the republic. pt. 4. 1861-1889 Edmund Clarence Stedman, Ellen Mackay Hutchinson, 1889 *Proceedings of ...
