Editing Across Media Ross F. Collins, 2013-02-18 Requirements for professional media editing have undergone enormous technological change Editors still edit copy But today they do much more Mass media editors must demonstrate skills from computerized pagination to social media monitoring from image manipulation to Search Engine Optimization The need for editing skills is reaching far beyond traditional journalism and into all areas of mass media from newspapers to strategic communication Public relations practitioners are expected to edit Even advertising creative professionals must edit And journalists taking on new roles as social media editors need to understand editing at the speed of digital media This textbook aims to prepare university level students for these expanded editing roles in an age of convergence Thirteen authors representing many years of collective media experience examine both traditional editing roles and new editing needs While many mass media students will not become professional editors this textbook assumes nearly all will need competent editing knowledge to produce products of professional quality Editing the authors believe remains a bedrock skill for all students who hope to be successful in the mass media Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Arnold Schwarzenegger: Champion's Body, Strategist's Mind Fabricio Sales Silva, 2025-04-17 Throughout my life I have always clung to a simple phrase which I carry like a mantra Ignore those who say you can't The world is full of experts in saying I can't They will try to convince you that your dreams are exaggerated that you were not born in the right place that you do not have the right talent that it is too late They will point out what is missing But true strength is born when you decide to point out what you have And believe me you have much more than you think I didn't get here by luck I arrived because I built a plan And then I executed that plan every day consistently I trained when I was exhausted I studied when they told me I wouldn't learn I worked while others rested And at every stage of my life from Mr Olympia to film from politics to philanthropy I maintained the same philosophy if you believe you find a way Many think that the most important thing in my life was the physical But what really moved me was the mind The body can lift weights yes but it is the mind that lifts life You can have results or excuses Never both Every time you say I can't you are strengthening a muscle in reverse that of resignation But every time you try even with fear even if you fail you are shaping the most powerful muscle of all that of courage War & Coffee Joshua Havill, 2024-07-02 In this thrillingly candid military memoir a helicopter pilot chronicles his time in Afghanistan both in combat and on base In 2009 Joshua Havill was deployed to

Afghanistan as a helicopter pilot with the Screaming Eagles of the 101st Airborne Division In War Coffee he shares a comically irreverent brutally honest perspective on what it means to join a decades long war half way through In between the occasional mortar round and rocket propelled grenades Havill takes a direct look at the tactical and ideological substance of a conflict laced with as much debauchery as tragedy After nine years of US Navy Submarine Service and a civilian interlude Havill reentered the military in 2002 to pursue aviation His career culminated with a year of flying UH 60 Blackhawks out of Bagram Air Base Time away from the cockpit was spent living in a plywood B hut and making frequent visits to the Lighthouse the base s sparse yet beloved self serve coffee shop Set during the most pivotal year of Operation Enduring Freedom this is a captivating illustration of life in a warzone
