Around Guisborough:

Around Guisborough Pam Wilson,2003-09 This fascinating collection of over 200 archive photographs portrays life in and around the town of Guisborough during the last 150 years Each image reveals the gradual and physical change in the buildings and streets from horse drawn vehicles and charabancs to carnivals and motorbike gymkhanas Each picture is accompanied by detailed and informative text Black's Picturesque Tourist and Road-book of England and Wales ,1843 Yorkshire Gordon Home,2022-09-04 DigiCat Publishing presents to you this special edition of Yorkshire by Gordon Home DigiCat Publishing considers every written word to be a legacy of humankind Every DigiCat book has been carefully reproduced for republishing in a new modern format The books are available in print as well as ebooks DigiCat hopes you will treat this work with the acknowledgment and passion it deserves as a classic of world literature Black's Picturesque Tourist and Road-book of England and Wales Adam and Charles Black (Firm),1843 Black's picturesque tourist and road and railway guide book through England and Wales ... Adam and Charles Black (Firm),1851 Viv (Graham) "simply the Best" Stephen Richards,1998 On New Years Eve 1993 Viv Graham s life came to a violent end This book recounts his life and his involvement with the Geordie Mafia It presents an insight into Tyneside and Teeside s criminal underworld as well as detailing kneecappings shootings drug dealing protection rackets and more The Beauties of England and Wales John Britton,Edward Wedlake Brayley,1812 A Smudge on My Lens Dave Spencer,2008 An adopted post war baby boomer from a Sussex council estate Dave Spencer was born at a time when reminders of World War II still littered the 50s landscape Nature was still bountiful but the landed gentry were selling our heritage before conservation had teeth His was the first television generation weaned on the Flower Pot Men he grew up in an increasingly commercial and libertarian society which exploded into the colourful 60s Ill at ease amongst former public school boys a lurch to the left saw him taking several unsuitable apprenticeships before a rude awakening led a confrontation with the law and a taste of life on the road Dave took a ferry across the Mersey and a hippy hike from Cornwall to Manchester then a final fling in Sussex led to an encounter with a longhaired milkman in a story which mixes religion drugs politics and passion Abbeys, Castles and Ancient Halls of England and Wales: North John Timbs,1872 William Bradley's Handcart D. W. Bradley,2024-05-23 In rural Great Ayton William Bradley is sent to live with his ageing grandparents away from his burdened mother who has too many mouths to feed and a drunken husband to support Adjusting to a new life William aspires to follow in his grandfather s footsteps in the mining business He also falls for a beautiful girl Susan but heartbreak is in store when Susan reveals her own ambitions for advancement in life William makes his mark in the mining business but discovers that his vocation may lie elsewhere than in mining whinstone When William is struck by a series of tragedies he is forced to evaluate his future and make some challenging decisions Full of the vigour of youth William leaves the safety of everything he has known and forges a new life with surprising results The Northern star, or Yorkshire magazine, ed. by A. Jewitt Arthur Jewitt, Conquest and Union Steven G. Ellis, Sarah Barber, 2014-06-06 The British Isles is a multi national arena but its history has traditionally been studied from a distinctively English often indeed London perspective Now however the interweaving of the distinct but mutually dependent histories of the four nations is at the heart of some of the liveliest historical research today In this major contribution to that research eleven leading scholars consider key aspects of the internal relations of England Scotland Ireland and Wales in the early modern period and the problems of accommodating different and resistant cultures to a single centralizing polity The contributors are Sarah Barber Toby Barnard Ciaran Brady Keith M Brown Jane Dawson Steven G Ellis David Hayton Philip Jenkins Alan Macinnes Michael Mac Craith and John Morrill The Reluctant Ambassador Dan O'Sullivan, 2016-05-15 Tudor court intrigues and England's place on the world stage are revealed through the eyes of Thomas Chaloner a most reluctant ambassador Yorkshire; or, Original delineations ... of that county John Bigland, 1815

Beauties of England and Wales Britton, 1812 North York Moors Through Time Paul Chrystal, Mark Sunderland, 2010-11-15 This fascinating selection of more than 180 photographs traces some of the many ways in which the villages in and around the North York Moors have changed and developed over the last century Interpreting Medieval Effigies Brian Gittos, Moira Gittos, 2019-05-31 This innovative study examines and analyses the wealth of evidence provided by the monumental effigies of Yorkshire from the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries including some of very high sculptural merit More than 200 examples survive from the historic county in varying states of preservation Together they present a picture of the people able to afford them at a time when the county was frequently at the forefront of national politics and administration during the Scottish wars Many monuments display remarkable realism depicting people as they themselves wished to be remembered and are accompanied by a great volume of contemporary sculptural and architectural detail Stylistic analysis of the effigies themselves has been employed better to understand how they relate to one another and give a firmer basis for their dating and production patterns They are considered in relation to the history and material culture of the area at the time they were produced A more soundly based appreciation of the sculptor's intentions and the aspirations of patrons is sought through close attention to the full extent of the visible evidence afforded by the monuments and their surroundings The corpus is of sufficient size to permit meaningful analysis to shed light on aspects such as personal aspiration social networks patterns of supply and production piety and wealth It demonstrates the value of funerary monuments to the wider understanding of medieval society The text will be accompanied by a comprehensive catalogue making available a substantial body of research for the first time The study considers the relationship between the monuments and related sculpture architecture painting glass etc together with contemporary documentary evidence where it is available This material and the underlying methodology are now available to illuminate monuments of the medieval period across the whole country Its methods and messages extend understanding of all monuments broadening its potential audience from the purely local to everyone concerned with medieval sculpture and church archaeology Abbeys, Castles and Ancient Halls of England and Wales John Timbs, Alexander Gunn, 1870 Gentleman's Magazine: and Historical Chronicle , 1842 Gentleman's Magazine, Or Monthly Intelligencer Sylvanus Urban (pseud. van Edward Cave.), 1842
